135 Jet Fighters Sold By U.S. To Yugoslavia

Nation Urges Tito Toward Independence

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Friday the United States has sold 135 F86D Saber jet fighters to Yugoslavia to help that Communist country stay free of Moscow's domination.

In connection with the sale, eight Yugoslav air force men are being trained at Perrin Air Force Base in Texas—four as pilots and four as maintenance men.

The Defense Department said three Yugoslav airmen also will get training at Lowry Air Force Base in Colorado.

The deal with Yugoslavia for the U.S. surplus, obsolescent all-weather interceptor planes is by far the largest U.S. arms transaction with Belgrade since President Tito halted American military aid to Yugoslavia in 1957.

Paid For In Cash

The State Department said Yugoslavia paid hard cash—not credit—for the planes in a business transaction which did not involve American foreign aid. While details of the payment were not spelled out, the deal was described as a dollar transaction, meaning the United States will in some fashion receive U.S. dollars.

A Pentagon spokesman said Yugoslavia also is paying for the training of the personnel as part of the sales arrangement.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said the decision to send the aircraft to Yugoslavia was taken in mid-January, shortly before President Kennedy succeeded Dwight D. Eisenhower in the White House. Government sources said the Kennedy administration could have stopped the deliveries, which took place in ensuing months, but instead stood by the Eisenhower administration's reasons for okaying the deal.

Support Independence

As White outlined the policy, the United States, since Tito's 1948 break with the Soviet bloc, has "supported the ability and determination of Yugoslavia to maintain its independence."

"The basic reason for the (Soviet-Yugoslav) split was the refusal of the Yugoslav government to sacrifice its national independence by submitting to the domination of the Soviet Union," White said.

"Since that time Yugoslavia has remained independent and has not participated in policies or programs to bring about the overthrow of subversion of legitimate governments by world communism."

U.S. strategists figured it was in America's best interests to supply planes to modernize Tito's air force, already mostly U.S.-built planes, rather than have him turn to the Soviet Union.

Informants said U.S. aircraft had been included in the nearly $700 million worth of arms aid shipments that ran until 195 after Tito, chafing under U.S. congressional and other criticism, ordered a halt. Since then some U.S. arms have gone forward on a cash sales basis, mostly replacement parts, they said.

Yugoslavia still gets U.S. economic aid.

JFK, Advisers Air Berlin Crisis And South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy met for 90 minutes Friday with his top policy advisers to discuss the Berlin crisis and presumably the question of whether U.S. troops should be rushed to South Viet Nam.

The President's session with his National Security Council came amid reports that he was "far from convinced" that American troops should be sent into South Viet Nam's mounting battle with communist guerrillas.

It also coincided with a Peiping Radio report, heard in Tokyo, that Ho Chi Minh, communist chief of North Viet Nam, met Red China's top leaders in Peiping Thursday night, presumably to discuss U.S. efforts to halt the communist tide in South Viet Nam.

Until now, Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh diem has taken the position that his forces could handle the Red threat. But the communists have built up their forces until, as Kennedy said in his recent U.N. speech, they are fighting at battalion strength.

As usual, there were no announcements of proceedings at the Security Council meeting. But the President is understood to be weighing conflicting advice on the actions that the United States should take in South Viet Nam.

He is confronted with the problem of whether to commit American forces to a dogged fight in the far eastern jungles as Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev continues his unyielding stand on Berlin.

The argument over whether use of U.S. troops should be considered undoubtedly was a big reason for the President's decision to send Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor to Saigon this weekend for conferences with Diem.

Taylor, who leaves Sunday on his fact-finding mission, will be accompanied by Walt W. Rostow, the President's special assistant for national security. Some 10

No Commitment On Poland Is Made By Rusk

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department denied Friday that Secretary of State Dean Rusk made any commitment for the United States to consider a Polish plan for a demilitarized zone in Central Europe.

In fact, press officer Lincoln White said at his news conference, Rusk did not talk about the proposal at all when he met Tuesday with Polish Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki. There had been a published report that Rusk told Rapacki the plan would be studied.

"The fact is that there was only the briefest reference to the plan by the Polish foreign minister and the secretary made no comment on it," White said, adding: "A lot of journalists have bad luck."

The plan called for an atom weapon-free zone and reduction of conventional forces in Central Europe.

The West, including the United States, has turned down the plan on the ground that it was a dangerous threat to Western military security in the area.

Officials said the U.S. position is unchanged and plans for disengagement in Central Europe are not negotiable.

Editors Told U.S. May Orbit Man In 3 Months

CHICAGO (UPI) — The United States might orbit a man around the earth within the next three months "if we are lucky," a military official of the space program said Friday night.

Lt. Col. John A. Powers, public affairs officer of America's man-in-space program, said this country's Mercury astronaut program is at the end of the beginning" after less than three years.

Powers told the fall meeting of the National Editorial Association that despite Russia's spectacular feats, the Soviet space program actually is ahead of this country's "only in a matter of degree."

At the same time, Powers expressed "serious doubts" that Russian Yru Gagarin made the original manned orbit of the earth earlier this year as claimed by the Soviet Union.

Powers did not deny that a flight was made at the time, but he cited evidence which indicates Gagarin was not inside the space capsule.

Earlier, the executive director of the Wall Street Journal's Newspaper Fund told a meeting of the editors that "there is a tremendous challenge to us in the newspaper business who are concerned with space for news and news about space."

The challenge, Paul Swennson said, is to obtain editorial workers who can write understandable copy for readers who are becoming better informed.

Publishers and editors must take their talent hunt to the nation's high schools and colleges if the big demand for editorial workers is to be met, he said.

The newspaper which fails to gain its share of skilled writers is "sliding backwards," Swennson said.

East German Vopos Given Fair Warning

Nine Young Men Crash Wire Barrier Into Free Zone

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

BERLIN (AP)—In a sharp protest Friday to Soviet officials, the U.S. Command warned "against the consequences of the reckless and illegal conduct" of East German border guards, a spokesman said.

The guards earlier in the day poured round after round of machinegun and rifle fire into Berlin's American sector when nine truck-borne refugees broke through the Communist fence.

None of the U.S. military and West Berlin police who rushed to the wooded scene was reported hurt in the hour-long shooting in early morning half-light. They did not return the fire.

Officers Confer

Gen. Albert Watson II, the U.S. commandant, in Berlin, drove to Soviet headquarters at Karlshorst in East Berlin to deliver the protest to the Soviet commandant, Col. A. I. Solovyev.

The American spokesman said Watson "warned against the consequences of the reckless and illegal conduct of the Vopos (East German People's Police). Gen. Watson also protested to the Soviets about other flagrant incidents which recently affected the peace and security of the American sector," the spokesman said.

He added that the protest led to a back-and-forth discussion between Watson and Solovyev, but he gave no indication of the Russian's reaction.

The nine scared refugees, ages 19 to 23, all former commuters to West Berlin, rammed their truck into the double line of barbed wire where the East German border cuts across the Machnowerstrasse in suburban Zehlendorf.

Amid a hail of fire, the truck snapped the wire but became stalled between two concrete posts. The refugees scrambled out and raced to cover in American territory with bullets whizzing.

West Berlin police arrived on the scene, and within minutes two loads of U.S. Military Police drove up.

"Stay away from the border or we will shoot," shouted an East German policeman.

Seconds later the Communists opened up with rapid-fire rifles in the dim light between 5 and 6 a.m. A truck and an armored personnel carrier brought additional East German police and they fired.

U.S. military and West Berlin police defied the warnings to keep back and did not take cover until they had made certain no injured refugee was lying near the truck.

"It's a miracle that we had no casualties," said a Western policeman.

Refugees Tell Story

Later, the refugees visited the scene of their escape and told their story.

Only Udo Langen, 20, a mechanic from Dahlewitz, and Manfred Dingler, also 20, of Blankenfelde, the truck driver, would permit use of their full names. The others wished to protect families in East Germany.

"We'd planned it for two weeks. We wanted to break through Saturday morning. But somebody must have tipped the police, they were after us," Udo said.

"All of us had been commuters, working in West Berlin but living in East Germany. We have been suspect ever since Aug. 13." That was the day the Communists closed the border between East and West Berlin.

They found a heavy truck near where they had been meeting to plot their escape.

They took the truck away and lined the body with sandbags. Udo went home and crept into his par-

French Use Bombs Against Moslems

ORAN, Algeria (UPI)—French security forces Friday used bombs and bullets against Moslems armed with knives, clubs and iron bars to quell Arab - versus-European violence in this west Algerian port city.

Five Moslems, including a little girl, were killed when French troops fired on the mobs rampaging through the seamy waterfront section where Arab and European workers live close together. "Many" others — no exact figure was given — were reported wounded.

Riot police, who had tried in vain to scatter the mob with tear gas grenades, arrested about 400 Moslems and held them for "identity checks."

Germans Look Over Escape Route

Their truck was caught in the entanglement, and the youths raced on foot into the U.S. sector. East German police opened fire but none of the escapees was hit. (AP Photofax via radio from Berlin)

Hoffa Challenges Communist Tag On Union Associates

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa Friday challenged the Communist-dominated tag which Senate investigators attached to some of his labor union allies.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, defended the mutual assistance pacts his organization has made with Harry Bridges' West Coast Longshoremen's Union and with the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union.

"I don't know whether they are Communist dominated or not," Hoffa told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

"There will be no pact between the Teamsters Union and any organization so convicted," he added.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., called Bridges' union "a communist - organization" and J. G. Sourwine, subcommittee counsel, referred to the Mine Workers as "Communist-dominated."

Hoffa declared at the outset of the hearing that he welcomed a chance to testify under oath that "Hoffa was not a Communist, has not associated with Communists, is not a Communist and never intends to be."

The subcommittee charged in a report in 1958 that Hoffa was being egged on by "Communist conspirators" in his plan to form a powerful alliance of transporation unions, including the East Coast and West Coast longshoremen and the National Maritime Union.

The subcommittee said such an alliance could "strangle the military forces of the nation in the event of war" by paralyzing land and sea transport.

The subcommittee's parent Judiciary Committee is now considering legislation aimed at making the Teamsters and other transportation unions subject to the antitrust laws, from which unions are now exempt, and to outlaw interstate transportation strikes.

Hoffa, whose Teamsters Union was expelled from the AFL-CIO in 1957 on corruption charges, denounced Friday's hearing in advance as a "witch hunt" by senators he described as "hatchet men."

He told the subcommittee he did not like the idea of seeing his name linked with communism and declared that to his knowledge there are no Communists in the Teamsters Union.

Asked if he was aware that the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union had been expelled from the CIO in 1950 on grounds it was Communist-dominated, Hoffa replied: "Common knowledge. Apparently they do things for publicity. They slept with them for a long time."

In defending his negotiations with the West Coast Longshoremen, Hoffa said he had a perfect right to "meet with anybody, whether it be Harry Bridges or Sen. McClellan—to make a comparison."

U.S. Preparing Atmospheric Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission is getting ready to resume nuclear tests in the atmosphere in case President Kennedy rules that national security demands it, informed sources said Friday.

They also reported that this country has set off considerably more underground explosions than the three which have been publicly announced since resumption of U.S. tests in Nevada last month. None has lossed radioactive fallout as the Soviet tests have.

Some of the American tests have been part of project Vela, a program to study the feasibility of detecting clandestine tests with seismic instruments like those which report on earthquakes. The shots also have provided weapons information.

But atomic sources said the United States also may have to resort to atmospheric tests to keep pace with Russia in weapons development and particularly to check warheads for anti-missile missiles.

A test of the Nike-Zeus anti-missile missile, based at Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands, against an Atlas fired from the West Coast is scheduled for next year. It has not been announced whether the Nike-Zeus warhead will be nuclear.

Syria Seated In UN

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Syria resumed its seat in the United Nations Friday with a pledge of "friendship to all states and a messenger of peace" through nonalignment.

There was no objection from the general assembly to President Mongi Slim's recommendation that the breakway northern province of the United Arab Republic reoccupy the seat it surrendered in 1958 to merge with Egypt.

Nation Halts Air Traffic In Alert Today

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—The greatest suspension of air traffic in history starts Saturday while the United States and Canada exercise their vast apparatus for detecting and destroying an enemy air attack.

All civilian and non-essential military aircraft will be grounded for 12 hours—the longest such inactivation in the history of aviation—for exercise Sky Shield II.

During that time more than 200,000 persons stationed from the Hebrides in the Atlantic to Midway in the Pacific, at lonely radar outposts in the frozen north, and at countless detection and interception stations in the United States and Canada will put the North American Air Defense Command NORAD apparatus into operation.

Sky Shield II is the latest of a series of such exercises conducted over the past few years. But none of them, including Sky Shield I a year ago, required nonessential aircraft to be grounded for such a period.

NORAD officers estimate that nearly 3,000 airline flights alone will be grounded. Thousands of other craft will be kept out of the air. Passengers, air freight, and air mail will not move.

Meanwhile, an "attack" force made up of Strategic Air Command B47 and B52 bombers operating from offshore bases, with a dozen or more British Royal Air Force V-bombers, will converge on the continent "from all directions."

Soviet Charges U.S. Has Taken Control Of UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin charged Friday that "one man"—evidently meaning American Andrew W. Cordier—had seized power illegally over the U.N. Secretariat.

Zorin, at a 1½-hour news conference, alleged that the unidentified official was running the 4,400-member Secretariat of the 101-nation organization in a one-sided way.

The 60-year-old Cordier, long a key figure in the organization declined to comment on the charges.

In a statement, he said there had been "no change whatsoever in the responsibilities" of the undersecretaries, but they were consulting among themselves much more than before Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold died in a plane crash in Africa Sept. 18.

Zorin said the United Nations would collapse "if the path of nonagreed decisions is taken" in the Secretariat.

He reiterated the Soviet Union's willingness to have a single acting secretary-general take charge temporarily instead of the three-man board, or troika, that it wants to be installed eventually.

He said the acting secretary-general should choose three, four, six or seven other secretaries of specified nationalities for principal advisers and should promise before his election to consult them and seek mutual agreement with them on major questions. But he stressed that the top man should make his own decisions and should not be subject to their veto.

2,100-Pound Discoverer Goes Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — A Discoverer satellite — a space-age oldtimer carrying the newest in experimental gear — streaked into orbit over the poles Friday.

Inside the nose of the 25-foot-long satellite was the usual capsule which scientists will try to recover over the Pacific from one to four days after launch.

The Air Force announced two hours after the launch — the 100th perfect firing of the Thor missile, which is used on Discoverer as the booster stage — that the 2,100 pound satellite was in orbit.

The satellite's path took it around the world every 91 minutes, ranging from a high of 266 miles to a low of 153 miles above the earth, the Air Force said.

Explorer VII Continues To Chatter Year After It Was Supposed To Quit

WASHINGTON (AP—A year after it was supposed to have gone silent, the U.S. satellite Explorer VII was still chattering away in space Friday, its second birthday. This could go on for years.

The solar-powered radio of the 91½-pound space vehicle was supposed to have shut up automatically a year ago Friday, so as to free its radio frequency for use in some other satellite.

But a timing device failed to function, so Explorer VII went right on broadcasting scientific data about radiation conditions at the altitudes of its orbital pathway—some 340 to 670 miles above the earth.

The trouble is, the satellite already had done a superlative job of scientific reporting by the time it reached its first birthday. Thus, its space chatter nowadays is largely repetitive.

Because of this, scientists of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration now tune in on the satellite's broadcasts during only two to five passes a week—compared with numerous contacts daily during the space messenger's first year aloft.

During that first year, Explorer VII relayed to ground stations information that was recorded on nearly 1,200 miles of magnetic tape. Among the satellite's outstanding scientific achievements was first proof that the Van Allen radiation belts "dump" radiation particles to help produce the aurora borealis.

Signals now being received are no longer being analyzed from the standpoint of radiation information, but NASA technicians say they still offer some by product value in "the evaluation of spacecraft operation."

The NASA men say that the only ways in which this celestial chatterbox could be shut off—thus freeing its frequency for other possible use—would be if the satellite itself were damaged, as for example by being struck by a meteor; or the radio transmitter just knocked out from old age. The satellite itself has an expected lifetime aloft of about 20 years.

Explorer VII continues to whirl above the planet at a speed of more than 17,000 miles an hour. It's one of 67 satellites, space probes, burned-out rocket carcasses, and parts of space vehicles that are in orbit around the earth or the sun. Five of these space travelers carry the Soviet trademark; all the rest are American.

Gen. E. A. Walker Assigned To Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, the Army officer who was lifted out of his command in Europe in a controversy over anticommunism teaching methods for troops, has been assigned to a job in the Pacific.

Walker, a brief Army announcement said Friday, will go to Pacific headquarters in Hawaii next month to be assistant chief of staff for operations, plans and training.

Five Moslems, including a little girl, were killed when French troops fired on the mobs rampaging through the seamy waterfront section where Arab and European workers live close together. "Many" others — no exact figure was given — were reported wounded.

Riot police, who had tried in vain to scatter the mob with tear gas grenades, arrested about 400 Moslems and held them for "identity checks."

Germans Look Over Escape Route

Nine East Germans stand in West Berlin near the site where they drove a truck into a barbed wire fence blocking Machnower Strasse earlier in the day. Their truck was caught in the entanglement, and the youths raced on foot into the U.S. sector. East German police opened fire but none of the escapees was hit. (AP Photofax via radio from Berlin)

Hoffa Challenges Communist Tag On Union Associates

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa Friday challenged the Communist-dominated tag which Senate investigators attached to some of his labor union allies.

Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, defended the mutual assistance pacts his organization has made with Harry Bridges' West Coast Longshoremen's Union and with the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union.

"I don't know whether they are Communist dominated or not," Hoffa told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

"There will be no pact between the Teamsters Union and any organization so convicted," he added.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., called Bridges' union "a communist - organization" and J. G. Sourwine, subcommittee counsel, referred to the Mine Workers as "Communist-dominated."

Hoffa declared at the outset of the hearing that he welcomed a chance to testify under oath that "Hoffa was not a Communist, has not associated with Communists, is not a Communist and never intends to be."

The subcommittee charged in a report in 1958 that Hoffa was being egged on by "Communist conspirators" in his plan to form a powerful alliance of transporation unions, including the East Coast and West Coast longshoremen and the National Maritime Union.

The subcommittee said such an alliance could "strangle the military forces of the nation in the event of war" by paralyzing land and sea transport.

The subcommittee's parent Judiciary Committee is now considering legislation aimed at making the Teamsters and other transportation unions subject to the anti-trust laws, from which unions are now exempt, and to outlaw interstate transportation strikes.

Hoffa, whose Teamsters Union was expelled from the AFL-CIO in 1957 on corruption charges, denounced Friday's hearing in advance as a "witch hunt" by senators he described as "hatchet men."

He told the subcommittee he did not like the idea of seeing his name linked with communism and declared that to his knowledge there are no Communists in the Teamsters Union.

Asked if he was aware that the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union had been expelled from the CIO in 1950 on grounds it was Communist-dominated, Hoffa replied: "Common knowledge. Apparently they do things for publicity. They slept with them for a long time."

In defending his negotiations with the West Coast Longshoremen, Hoffa said he had a perfect right to "meet with anybody, whether it be Harry Bridges or Sen. McClellan—to make a comparison."

U.S. Preparing Atmospheric Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission is getting ready to resume nuclear tests in the atmosphere in case President Kennedy rules that national security demands it, informed sources said Friday.

They also reported that this country has set off considerably more underground explosions than the three which have been publicly announced since resumption of U.S. tests in Nevada last month. None has lossed radioactive fall-out as the Soviet tests have.

Some of the American tests have been part of project Vela, a program to study the feasibility of detecting clandestine tests with seismic instruments like those which report on earthquakes. The shots also have provided weapons information.

But atomic sources said the United States also may have to resort to atmospheric tests to keep pace with Russia in weapons development and particularly to check warheads for anti-missile missiles.

A test of the Nike-Zeus anti-missile missile, based at Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands, against an Atlas fired from the West Coast is scheduled for next year. It has not been announced whether the Nike-Zeus warhead will be nuclear.

Syria Seated In UN

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Syria resumed its seat in the United Nations Friday with a pledge of "friendship to all states and a messenger of peace" through non-alignment.

There was no objection from the general assembly to President Mongi Slim's recommendation that the breakway northern province of the United Arab Republic reoccupy the seat it surrendered in 1958 to merge with Egypt.

Nation Halts Air Traffic In Alert Today

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—The greatest suspension of air traffic in history starts Saturday while the United States and Canada exercise their vast apparatus for detecting and destroying an enemy air attack.

All civilian and non-essential military aircraft will be grounded for 12 hours—the longest such inactivation in the history of aviation—for exercise Sky Shield II.

During that time more than 200,000 persons stationed from the Hebrides in the Atlantic to Midway in the Pacific, at lonely radar outposts in the frozen north, and at countless detection and interception stations in the United States and Canada will put the North American Air Defense Command NORAD apparatus into operation.

Sky Shield II is the latest of a series of such exercises conducted over the past few years. But none, of them, including Sky Shield I a year ago, required non-essential aircraft to be grounded for such a period.

NORAD officers estimate that nearly 3,000 airline flights alone will be grounded. Thousands of other craft will be kept out of the air. Passengers, air freight, and air mail will not move.

Meanwhile, an "attack" force made up of Strategic Air Command B47 and B52 bombers operating from offshore bases, with a dozen or more British Royal Air Force V-bombers, will converge on the continent "from all directions."

Soviet Charges U.S. Has Taken Control Of UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin charged Friday that "one man"—evidently meaning American Andrew W. Cordier—had seized power illegally over the U.N. Secretariat.

Zorin, at a 1½-hour news conference, alleged that the unidentified official was running the 4,400-member Secretariat of the 101-nation organization in a one-sided way.

The 60-year-old Cordier, long a key figure in the organization declined to comment on the charges.

In a statement, he said there had been "no change whatsoever in the responsibilities" of the undersecretaries, but they were consulting among themselves much more than before Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold died in a plane crash in Africa Sept. 18.

Zorin said the United Nations would collapse "if the path of nonagreed decisions is taken" in the Secretariat.

He reiterated the Soviet Union's willingness to have a single acting secretary-general take charge temporarily instead of the three-man board, or troika, that it wants to be installed eventually.

He said the acting secretary-general should choose three, four, six or seven other secretaries of specified nationalities for principal advisers and should promise before his election to consult them and seek mutual agreement with them on major questions. But he stressed that the top man should make his own decisions and should not be subject to their veto.

2,100-Pound Discoverer Goes Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — A Discoverer satellite — a space-age old-timer carrying the newest in experimental gear — streaked into orbit over the poles Friday.

Inside the nose of the 25-foot-long satellite was the usual capsule which scientists will try to recover over the Pacific from one to four days after launch.

The Air Force announced two hours after the launch — the 100th perfect firing of the Thor missile, which is used on Discoverer as the booster stage — that the 2,100 pound satellite was in orbit.

The satellite's path took it around the world every 91 minutes, ranging from a high of 266 miles to a low of 153 miles above the earth, the Air Force said.

Gen. E. A. Walker Assigned To Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, the Army officer who was lifted out of his command in Europe in a controversy over anticommunism teaching methods for troops, has been assigned to a job in the Pacific.

Walker, a brief Army announcement said Friday, will go to Pacific headquarters in Hawaii next month to be assistant chief of staff for operations, plans and training.

Explorer VII Continues To Chatter Year After It Was Supposed To Quit

WASHINGTON (AP—A year after it was supposed to have gone silent, the U.S. satellite Explorer VII was still chattering away in space Friday, its second birthday. This could go on for years.

The solar-powered radio of the 91½-pound space vehicle was supposed to have shut up automatically a year ago Friday, so as to free its radio frequency for use in some other satellite.

But a timing device failed to function, so Explorer VII went right on broadcasting scientific data about radiation conditions at the altitudes of its orbital pathway—some 340 to 670 miles above the earth.

The trouble is, the satellite already had done a superlative job of scientific reporting by the time it reached its first birthday. Thus, its space chatter nowadays is largely repetitive.

Because of this, scientists of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration now tune in on the satellite's broadcasts during only two to five passes a week—compared with numerous contacts daily during the space messenger's first year aloft.

During that first year, Explorer VII relayed to ground stations information that was recorded on nearly 1,200 miles of magnetic tape. Among the satellite's outstanding scientific achievements was first proof that the Van Allen radiation belts "dump" radiation particles to help produce the aurora borealis.

Signals now being received are no longer being analyzed from the standpoint of radiation information, but NASA technicians say they still offer some by product value in "the evaluation of spacecraft operation."

The NASA men say that the only ways in which this celestial chatterbox could be shut off—thus freeing its frequency for other possible use—would be if the satellite itself were damaged, as for example by being struck by a meteor; or the radio transmitter just knocked out from old age. The satellite itself has an expected lifetime aloft of about 20 years.

Explorer VII continues to whirl above the planet at a speed of more than 17,000 miles an hour. It's one of 67 satellites, space probes, burned-out rocket carcasses, and parts of space vehicles that are in orbit around the earth or the sun. Five of these space travelers carry the Soviet trademark; all the rest are American.

Reds Protest Police Action In Amsterdam

Soviet Ambassador Is Withdrawn

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union withdrew its ambassador to Holland Friday and ordered the Dutch ambassador to leave Moscow in protest against the brawl between Soviet Embassy officials and police at Amsterdam's airport last Monday.

In a note to the Dutch government, the Soviet government declared police had made a "shameful provocation" against the person of Soviet Ambassador Ponteleimon K. Ponomarenko while he was performing his duties protecting Soviet citizens.

The affair grew out of a controversy over Mrs. Alexei Golub whose husband, a Soviet biochemist had defected while on a tour in the Netherlands. The Russian woman arrived at the airport evidently prepared to depart but Dutch police insisted on talking to her to see whether she was leaving of her own free will. She then was allowed to fly back to the Soviet Union while her husband stayed in the Netherlands.

In the note the Soviet government accused the police of an international provocation made with the knowledge of the Dutch government.

Cuban Student Before Firing Squad

HAVANA (AP)—Jorge Fundora Fernandez died before a firing squad today, condemned as a secret U.S. agent sent to Cuba to make "attempts on the lives of prominent figures."

A government announcement said Fundora, described as a Cuban student, was executed at Matanzas, 60 miles east of havana, where he was condemned by a military court Thursday.

Fundora's death raised to 630 the unofficial total of executions since Fidel Castro came to power Jan. 1, 1959.

3 Maryland Moonshiners Sentenced

BALTIMORE (AP) — Three Southern Maryland men were sentenced to federal prison Friday in separate moonshine whisky cases.

James W. Handy, 42, of Mechanicsville, was sentenced to six months after he pleaded guilty to charges of having a 50-gallon still in the attic of his house last Aug. 15.

John R. Hargrove, deputy U.S. attorney, said the government believes someone else backed the still but Handy took responsibility for it.

Harry Wilson Thomas, 42, of Mechanicsville, was sentenced to six months for selling 51 gallons of untaxed whisky to an undercover agent last November and December.

In a third case, Francis A. Swann, 58, of Faulkner, Charles County, was sentenced to 18 months for having a 50-gallon still and 96 gallons of mash in his barn Sept. 12.

Martha Johnson, 45, of Pasadena, was fined $200 and put on probation for one year when she pleaded guilty to possession of five gallons of moonshine whisky last June 27.

The cases were heard in U.S. District Court.

Students Advised To Launch Career Before Marriage

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — Dr. Margaret Meade, a noted anthropologist and author, advised a group of college students here Friday not to get married until they have finished their studies and started their careers.

Dr. Meade told the student body at Western Maryland College that students are "being pushed" into marriage to fast, leaving little time for "adventure, study, and finding their life ambitions." Many students get married as part of "following the herd," she added.

The anthropologist advised the students to consider life in terms of its deeper problems and to worry less about whether they should get married in their junior or senior years.

Civilization may be doomed, she said, and students should think and act in such a way as to feel their lives have not been wasted.

Dr. Meade said the present world is one "in which peace has ceased to be an ideal and has become a necessity."

"Peace must now be maintained like food, shelter, water and other basic needs," she said.

4 Drug Store Employes Held In Book Probe

Police Attempt To Prohibit Sale

WHEATON, Md. (AP) — Four employes of a drug store have been arrested in a move by Montgomery County Police to ban the sale of the book "Tropic of Cancer."

Two clerks of a Drug Fair store were charged this week with selling a lewd and indecent book. The store's manager and assistant manager were charged with permitting sale of the book.

Police Capt. Fred Thrailkill said he told Drug Fair management and other newsstand operators to remove "dirty" books and "so far as we know no other trash like this is for sale now." He said the case would be a test of state and federal obscenity laws.

Drug Fair's president, Milton Elsberg, said the chain had been assured by the Post Office and the Justice Department that the book was not obscene. Copies have been removed from all the chain's stores in the area, he said, pending a test of whether the book is literature.

In Baltimore, meanwhile, Police Capt. Joseph Mahrer said Friday he planned to send a copy of the book to the Baltimore state's attorney for an opinion on whether it should be taken off the newsstands.

Thousands of copies of the book appeared on Baltimore newsstands this week.

Mahrer indicated he would carry his bid to have the book banned to the attorney general if the local prosecutor ruled in favor of the book.

Rostow was reported to have urged consideration of stronger measures in South Viet Nam, including the dispatch of U. S. combat troops as a reserve force.

Neither Secretary of State Dean Rusk nor Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has jointed Rostow's side of the still informal debate, according to a reliable source.

Opponents of immediate intervention argue that talk of sending American troops is premature because measures to strengthen South Viet Nam's own defense forces are only now beginning to go into effect.

Lattimore Gives Report On Outer Mongolia Status

BALTIMORE (AP) — Owen Lattimore, a former consultant to the State Department on Asian affairs, said Friday it would be "immature and unrealistic" for the U.S. to establish diplomatic ties with Outer Mongolia in hopes of creating dissension between Russia and China.

"It has been rather immaturely assumed that if we establish such relations with Outer Mongolia it would be a listening post or even represent an opportunity to exploit differences between Russia and China," he said.

Lattimore, a professor at Johns Hopkins University, recently returned from a six-week tour of Outer Mongolia. He spoke today at an assembly of students.

The Asian affairs specialist said Outer Mongolia's proximity to both the Soviet Union and China made it unlikely the nation ever would turn against either of its neighbors.

"It is unrealistic to assume that a nation of one million in that geographic situation could be hostile to China or Russia," he said.

Lattimore said he had found somewhat more academic freedom in Outer Mongolia than exists in Russia or China. He said students there are allowed to read conflicting versions of recent history — a situation that does not exist in other Communist countries.

Despite Outer Mongolia's manpower shortage, he said, the government there has not allowed Soviet or Chinese technicians to settle in the country.

Police were called by Elye J. Hubble, a farmer, who said he was awakened about 4 a.m. by shouts and the breaking of glass in his front door.

Police said when they arrived Hubble had tied up the man, who had poured gasoline on the Hubble porch and tried to light it. Hubble lives on Harmony Road near Federalsburg.

Friendship will be closed from 1 p.m. Saturday until 1 a.m. Sunday. All civilian aircraft in the United States and Canada will be grounded during the 12-hour period.

SALISBURY (AP) — Poultry growers on the Eastern Shore have experienced their worst month in the 30-year history of the Delmarva Peninsula's broiler chicken industry.

Broilers sold during the past month for an average of 13 cents a pound — 20 per cent below the corresponding period in 1960.

Growers generally regard 15 to 16 cents per pound as the break-even range. Last week the average price in this area fell to 12.61.

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — Two persons have asked the Montgomery County State Central Committee to name them to Del. Blair Lee's place in the House of Delegates if Lee is named State Senator.

Those bidding for Lee's seat — if he moves across the hall at Annapolis — are Alice Hostetler and Mrs. Philip Thorson. The committee will meet Oct. 26 to make its recommendation to Gov. Tawes, who must name Northrop's successor.

FREDERICK (AP) — Hood College will hold the formal inauguration of its new president, Dr. Randle Elliott, Saturday morning.

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — A military callup will bring goodbyes to the John Fischer family Monday. Mrs. Charlotte Fischer leaves for Ft. Bliss, Tex., to begin a year of active duty as a nurse with the 395th Evacuation Hospital Unit. John stays home to tend his shoe shop and keep house.

Friday The 13th

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Thirteen automobiles piled up in a chain-reaction collision on a highway here Friday.

Thirteen police cars responded.

However, non-superstitious police blamed fog, not a "Friday the 13th" hex, for the collision. There were no serious injuries.

Lattimore Gives Report On Outer Mongolia Status

BALTIMORE (AP) — Owen Lattimore, a former consultant to the State Department on Asian affairs, said Friday it would be "immature and unrealistic" for the U.S. to establish diplomatic ties with Outer Mongolia in hopes of creating dissension between Russia and China.

"It has been rather immaturely assumed that if we establish such relations with Outer Mongolia it would be a listening post or even represent an opportunity to exploit differences between Russia and China," he said.

Lattimore, a professor at Johns Hopkins University, recently returned from a six-week tour of Outer Mongolia. He spoke today at an assembly of students.

The Asian affairs specialist said Outer Mongolia's proximity to both the Soviet Union and China made it unlikely the nation ever would turn against either of its neighbors.

"It is unrealistic to assume that a nation of one million in that geographic situation could be hostile to China or Russia," he said.

Lattimore said he had found somewhat more academic freedom in Outer Mongolia than exists in Russia or China. He said students there are allowed to read conflicting versions of recent history — a situation that does not exist in other Communist countries.

Despite Outer Mongolia's manpower shortage, he said, the government there has not allowed Soviet or Chinese technicians to settle in the country.

Maryland News In Brief

SALISBURY (AP) — Take it from Arthur Duer, it's going to be a long, rough winter.

Duer, a former Worcester County sheriff, has been hunting squirrels for 40 years. He said the squirrels' coats this year are the heaviest he has ever seen.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Antonio Walker, 15, of Baltimore was shot in the leg early Friday after leaving a rock-and-roll show which had been attended by some 1,000 persons at the Coliseum.

Four teen-agers were arrested in connection with the shooting. Before the shooting, police arrested 14 persons in or near the Coliseum on charges ranging from disorderly conduct to assault.

CAMBRIDGE (AP) — A 65-year-old Caroline County man was admitted to the Eastern Shore State Hospital for observation Friday after State Police said he tried to set fire to the house of a neighbor.

Police were called by Elye J. Hubble, a farmer, who said he was awakened about 4 a.m. by shouts and the breaking of glass in his front door.

Police said when they arrived Hubble had tied up the man, who had poured gasoline on the Hubble porch and tried to light it. Hubble lives on Harmony Road near Federalsburg.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Friendship International Airport will be closed for the first time in its 10-year history Saturday as part of Sky Shield II, an aerial war game to be conducted by the North American Air Defense Command.

Friendship will be closed from 1 p.m. Saturday until 1 a.m. Sunday. All civilian aircraft in the United States and Canada will be grounded during the 12-hour period.

SALISBURY (AP) — Poultry growers on the Eastern Shore have experienced their worst month in the 30-year history of the Delmarva Peninsula's broiler chicken industry.

Broilers sold during the past month for an average of 13 cents a pound — 20 per cent below the corresponding period in 1960.

Growers generally regard 15 to 16 cents per pound as the break-even range. Last week the average price in this area fell to 12.61.

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — Two persons have asked the Montgomery County State Central Committee to name them to Del. Blair Lee's place in the House of Delegates if Lee is named State Senator.

Lee, already a candidate for Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, is rumored to be earmarked to replace State Sen. Edward S. Northrop, who will be sworn in as a federal judge Oct. 24.

Those bidding for Lee's seat — if he moves across the hall at Annapolis — are Alice Hostetler and Mrs. Philip Thorson. The committee will meet Oct. 26 to make its recommendation to Gov. Tawes, who must name Northrop's successor.

FREDERICK (AP) — Hood College will hold the formal inauguration of its new president, Dr. Randle Elliott, Saturday morning.

Dr. Elliott will be preceeded into the college's Hodson Outdoor Theater by more than 200 representatives of colleges and universities. More than 1,000 guests are expected.

Churches Urged To Avoid Sentimentalism And Theatricalism In Religious Music

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

Songs and tunes that people like aren't necessarily fit for the church.

After all, the objective is to please God, not a human audience.

That's the conclusion of a new study on religious music, its uses and acceptability in worship.

Declaring that it's a mistake to make "the attractiveness of music to the worshippers the principal criterion," the study says: "The congregation does not — or should not—come to church to be entertained. Essentially, the music is not addressed to the congregation, but to God."

The extensive study, drawn up by an Episcopal Church commission headed by the Rt. Rev. James P. De Wolfe, bishop of Long Island, said church music suffers from certain "chronic ills."

"These are sentimentalism, theatricalism and virtuosity.

"The church must ever be alert to prevent these from developing either through weak and effeminate melodies or harmonizations, overdramatic interpretations or compositions which can only be produced by virtuosic soloists or choral groups."

Reasons given for avoiding this kind of music include:

Sentimentalism may "move people emotionally," but has no "effect on the will."

Melodramatic interpretations "may be highly entertaining but lacking in Godward direction."

Virtuoso-type artistic numbers rob "the congregation of all participation," producing the atmosphere of a show.

At the same time, the study says church music "does not exist for itself alone" and must be secondary to prayers and worship and not draw "undue attention to itself."

Some kinds of music is apt to do just that, the study said, noting:

"It is quite obvious that if the lilt or thump of the meter in the music is obtrusive, one is more apt to associate it with the dance than with the church."

Nevertheless, it was concluded that "no power on earth is more potent" than good church music in inspiring "the faithful with higher motives and nobler resolves."

The countdown has been completed. At the word "zero," electronic miracles happen. The rocket zooms skyward, and seems to penetrate the infinite.

But it hasn't. Man's greatest efforts fall far short of solving the mystery that is life itself. The answer is known only unto God. And man's greatest troubles still concern not the universe but man himself, and his fellowmen.

The greatest scientists today realize even more acutely than most of us the limitations of mankind. From deep, personal experience they know how desperately man needs God's love and His guidance. And they know, too, that no matter how "invincible" their rockets may become, in the end, true peace can be achieved only by God's own workings within the hearts and minds of men.

Pray for this kind of peace in church next Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Churches Urged To Avoid Sentimentalism And Theatricalism In Religious Music

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

Songs and tunes that people like aren't necessarily fit for the church.

After all, the objective is to please God, not a human audience.

That's the conclusion of a new study on religious music, its uses and acceptability in worship.

Declaring that it's a mistake to make "the attractiveness of music to the worshippers the principal criterion," the study says: "The congregation does not — or should not—come to church to be entertained. Essentially, the music is not addressed to the congregation, but to God."

The extensive study, drawn up by an Episcopal Church commission headed by the Rt. Rev. James P. De Wolfe, bishop of Long Island, said church music suffers from certain "chronic ills."

"These are sentimentalism, theatricalism and virtuosity.

"The church must ever be alert to prevent these from developing either through weak and effeminate melodies or harmonizations, overdramatic interpretations or compositions which can only be produced by virtuosic soloists or choral groups."

Reasons given for avoiding this kind of music include:

Sentimentalism may "move people emotionally," but has no "effect on the will."

Melodramatic interpretations "may be highly entertaining but lacking in Godward direction."

Virtuoso-type artistic numbers rob "the congregation of all participation," producing the atmosphere of a show.

At the same time, the study says church music "does not exist for itself alone" and must be secondary to prayers and worship and not draw "undue attention to itself."

Some kinds of music is apt to do just that, the study said, noting:

"It is quite obvious that if the lilt or thump of the meter in the music is obtrusive, one is more apt to associate it with the dance than with the church."

Nevertheless, it was concluded that "no power on earth is more potent" than good church music in inspiring "the faithful with higher motives and nobler resolves."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The countdown has been completed. At the word "zero," electronic miracles happen. The rocket zooms skyward, and seems to penetrate the infinite.

But it hasn't. Man's greatest efforts fall far short of solving the mystery that is life itself. The answer is known only unto God. And man's greatest troubles still concern not the universe but man himself, and his fellowmen.

The greatest scientists today realize even more acutely than most of us the limitations of mankind. From deep, personal experience they know how desperately man needs God's love and His guidance. And they know, too, that no matter how "invincible" their rockets may become, in the end, true peace can be achieved only by God's own workings within the hearts and minds of men.

Pray for this kind of peace in church next Sunday.

GOP Women Praised, Local Meeting, Oct. 18

Addressing the 40th annual convention of the Federation of Republican Women of Maryland, Rep. Charles M. Mathias, congressman from the sixth district, told the women that last year a census was taken of volunteer hours the Maryland women gave on election day. They totaled 24,000 hours and a contribution of $10,000 to the state central committee. One half of both the hours and money were given by the Sixth District of which Allegany County, and the Cumberland Republican Women's Club are a part.

Discussing the criticism of him in voting against the education aid bill, he explained that it was presented on a "Calendar Wednesday" which means a bill must be brought up, discussed and finished on the same day. He said he voted against it, because he felt it needed more time to be discussed.

Mrs. Holmes Cessna, president of the local club; Mrs. George Barncord and Mrs. John Lancaster, member of the publicity committee for the convention, were among the 300 attending.

Other main speakers were Adm. Arthur Ainslie Ageton, USNR, and former ambassador to Paraguay. Speaking on "Communism in Latin American Countries," he spoke of the United States aid, used and also wasted there and how Russians, trained fluently in Spanish, have taken over the schools. Senator John Marshall Butler, senior senator of Maryland, declared the "New Frontier" is nothing more than a review. They have discovered it takes more than text books to run the United States and declared the "old New Deal has just been dealt off the bottom of the deck."

Mrs. William A. Hepburn, Rockville, was re-elected president. Miss Helen Remsburg, Montgomery County, and Mrs. Steven Johnson, Silver Spring, were named chairman and vice chairman of the Sixth District to organize and keep clubs active and form new ones. Their work area includes Montgomery, Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett counties. Anyone interested in forming a club is asked to call Mrs. Cessna. The monthly meeting of the Cumberland Republican Women will be held October 18 at 7:45 at the Woman's Civic Club house, at which time members of the state central committee will conduct a question and answer period.

GOP Women Praised, Local Meeting, Oct. 18

Addressing the 40th annual convention of the Federation of Republican Women of Maryland, Rep. Charles M. Mathias, congressman from the sixth district, told the women that last year a census was taken of volunteer hours the Maryland women gave on election day. They totaled 24,000 hours and a contribution of $10,000 to the state central committee. One half of both the hours and money were given by the Sixth District of which Allegany County, and the Cumberland Republican Women's Club are a part.

Discussing the criticism of him in voting against the education aid bill, he explained that it was presented on a "Calendar Wednesday" which means a bill must be brought up, discussed and finished on the same day. He said he voted against it, because he felt it needed more time to be discussed.

Mrs. Holmes Cessna, president of the local club; Mrs. George Barncord and Mrs. John Lancaster, member of the publicity committee for the convention, were among the 300 attending.

Other main speakers were Adm. Arthur Ainslie Ageton, USNR, and former ambassador to Paraguay. Speaking on "Communism in Latin American Countries," he spoke of the United States aid, used and also wasted there and how Russians, trained fluently in Spanish, have taken over the schools. Senator John Marshall Butler, senior senator of Maryland, declared the "New Frontier" is nothing more than a review. They have discovered it takes more than text books to run the United States and declared the "old New Deal has just been dealt off the bottom of the deck."

Mrs. William A. Hepburn, Rockville, was re-elected president. Miss Helen Remsburg, Montgomery County, and Mrs. Steven Johnson, Silver Spring, were named chairman and vice chairman of the Sixth District to organize and keep clubs active and form new ones. Their work area includes Montgomery, Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett counties. Anyone interested in forming a club is asked to call Mrs. Cessna. The monthly meeting of the Cumberland Republican Women will be held October 18 at 7:45 at the Woman's Civic Club house, at which time members of the state central committee will conduct a question and answer period.

SRC Requests New System On Permits

Henry F. Frederick, chief of right of ways for the State Roads Commission in this district, appeared before the Allegany County Board of Commissioners to discuss a proposal to handle issuance of building permits on the right-of-way of proposed state highways.

He explained that the SRC often has to spend thousands of dollars in excess of what would be necessary to obtain property which is either partially or completely erected on land which is in line with the route of planned highways.

Frederick said that the state would save much money if a system could be used whereby the county would notify the SRC of requests for building permits so that the state could step in and buy the land if a roadway was proposed for the near future.

He also stated that the property owner would also be saved the trouble of having to move out and locate his home or business elsewhere.

Commissioner John T. Mason said that after the interim zoning ordinance is adopted by the county board a plan would be set up to clear with the SRC when a building permit is requested to determine if it would interfere with any proposed roads.

Frederick said that the SRC was interested only in land along state highways, such as Route 40. The commissioners said they would discuss the request by Frederick and try to determine what could be done.

The SRC official said that a 60-day delaying clause in all building permits which are along the highway right of way area would solve the problem. In the interim period the SRC planning department in Baltimore could be contacted and a determination made if the property would be used for an eventual highway project.

The commissioners said they would have to discuss the matter with Leslie J. Clark, board attorney, to see what could be done.

Frederick said he plans to meet with the Mayor and Council of Cumberland next Monday to see if the city would adopt such a plan in view of the large amount of highway work in this city and county.

SRC Requests New System On Permits

Henry F. Frederick, chief of right of ways for the State Roads Commission in this district, appeared before the Allegany County Board of Commissioners to discuss a proposal to handle issuance of building permits on the right-of-way of proposed state highways.

He explained that the SRC often has to spend thousands of dollars in excess of what would be necessary to obtain property which is either partially or completely erected on land which is in line with the route of planned highways.

Frederick said that the state would save much money if a system could be used whereby the county would notify the SRC of requests for building permits so that the state could step in and buy the land if a roadway was proposed for the near future.

He also stated that the property owner would also be saved the trouble of having to move out and locate his home or business elsewhere.

Commissioner John T. Mason said that after the interim zoning ordinance is adopted by the county board a plan would be set up to clear with the SRC when a building permit is requested to determine if it would interfere with any proposed roads.

Frederick said that the SRC was interested only in land along state highways, such as Route 40. The commissioners said they would discuss the request by Frederick and try to determine what could be done.

The SRC official said that a 60-day delaying clause in all building permits which are along the highway right of way area would solve the problem. In the interim period the SRC planning department in Baltimore could be contacted and a determination made if the property would be used for an eventual highway project.

The commissioners said they would have to discuss the matter with Leslie J. Clark, board attorney, to see what could be done.

Frederick said he plans to meet with the Mayor and Council of Cumberland next Monday to see if the city would adopt such a plan in view of the large amount of highway work in this city and county.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD — In this day of too expensive pictures and temperamental stars, Columbia is welcoming Sam Katzman back with open contracts. For fifteen years at Columbia, Sam turned out good pictures fast, at moderate prices — and you can hardly get such producers any more.

Sam's first under his new deal at Columbia is a western, "The outlaws of Duke County," which he's putting into the works immediately. Not only that, but he tells me he will make a yarn about teenagers, which he'll get going by Christmas time.

Small detail: The teenage story isn't written yet, but a thing like that never stops Sam. Incidentally he's calling his new outfit "Four Leaf Productions" — meaning lucky.

Meanwhile, Sam who parted company with 20th, is suing the studio for two pictures he claims were contracted for and not made.

Just before Warren Beatty and Natalie Wood took off for New York—She to discuss a play, and he to do exploitation for "Splendor in the Grass," Warren told me that William Inge, who wrote "Splendor" has just written a one act play "Glory in the Flowers."

"It's just great," Warren said, "and could be put into a longer play. Inge intends to do this, and wants to put me in it. But I'm not sure I want to return to Broadway. I think Inge is so brilliant, however, I would certainly like to play in anything he has written."

I was relieved when Dorothy Malone told me her big happy secret that she and Jacques Bergerac are expecting another baby in January. I had feared it might be trouble in the Bergerac family, because Jacques was unhappy when Dorothy didn't got with him to Rome, where he is making a picture.

She had called me several times and we finally made a date. She brought her daughter, Mimi, a year and a half old. She is a real cutie-pie, with dark hair and eyes like her father.

There never has been — and I doubt there'll ever be a character comparable to Alfred Hitchcock, who is a ham from way back, and the funniest man in our town.

He says he keeps getting casting inspirations suitable to the title "The Birds," the novel Evan Hunter is adapting as Hitchcock's next movie.

"Such names as Peter Finch, Gregory Peck, and Polly Bergen flash into my mind," says Hitchy, "and although they are appropriate, they are rare binds, and may be hard to get."

The first Negro slaves in the United States were brought here by the Dutch in 1619. They were landed at Jamestown in August.

Bus Line Says Competition 'Unfair'

Two officials of the Peoples Transit Company, with headquarters in Frostburg, appeared before the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday to state that because of what they call "unfair" competition from some school bus contractors they are faced with "extinction" in the public transportation field.

John Lochner, secretary-treasurer of the firm, was the main spokesman and he was accompanied by Thomas Kenney, president.

Lochner said that the employe-owned bus line has been barely able to meet expenses and payrolls during the last eight years. He said that one school bus contractor, (Blaine A. Willets) has "cut into" the company's business. Lochner said that the business of hauling student nurses from Memorial Hospital to Frostburg State Teachers College over the past few years has been cut in half because Willets has been given part of the business.

This same school bus contractor, Lochner said, has also obtained an ICC charter and is cutting into the Peoples Transit Company's business on charter runs. Lochner said that when the Peoples firm obtained their ICC charter it inadvertently had the wording from Frostburg to various nearby states. Because the wording did not state Allegany County the firm has lost a number of charter trips out of Cumberland.

Lochner said that if something is not done soon the Peoples firm will be forced out of business. This will mean that there will be no public bus transportation from Westernport via Lonaconing, Midland, Frostburg to Cumberland. He also said that hauling workers to and from the Amcelle plant of Celanese Fibers Company to points along the Georges Creek would also be ended.

Lochner charges that the school bus contractor he blames for most of the firm's troubles does not have the expense which normally is assessed to the Peoples firm.

Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, came to the commissioners' meeting room to explain the method by which the school bus contractors operate in hauling children.

Webster said the State Department of Education sets the requirements for all school operations in the state. He said that the school bus contractors purchase their own buses and the state allows so much money to amortize the cost over an eight-year period. The state also pays the contractor on a mileage basis and on the number of children hauled. Certain sums are also provided for the driver and the insurance on the children being carried is also paid by the state.

Webster said he is sympathetic to the problem of the Peoples company but the Board of Education is concerned only with the transportation of children and this is done under certain rules and regulations which must be met.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband's brother is in a mental hospital about 20 miles from here. He isn't violent or harmful, but he has the mentality of an 11-year-old.

Every weekend we drive over to get him and he spends Saturday evening and Sunday with us. He sleeps in the same bedroom with our 10-year-old son and this worries me sick. Our son asks why Uncle Gerald talks to himself and why he laughs so much.

We can't accept any invitations on weekends and we don't want to ask anyone over here. When our children's friends come over we worry for fear they'll offend Gerald. The atmosphere is terribly tense.

I hate to complain to my husband, but I just can't take his brother every weekend of my life. I don't want to seem unsympathetic but we have a life of our own to live.—S.O.I.

DEAR S.O.I.: Your husband is asking too much of his family. Every other weekend is often enough for Gerald to come to visit. And he should not share your son's bedroom under any circumstances. He should be driven back to the hospital to spend the night.

Explain to your children and their friends that Uncle Gerald is mentally ill and that he needs understanding. Tell them to treat him as they would any other adult and to make allowances for his peculiarities.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a divorced woman with three lovely children. The man I've been going with for two years is a widower. He has four of the wildest, most ill-mannered kids I've ever seen in my life. His youngest child is so mean and destructive that they can't even keep a canary in the house. Something "mysterious" has happened to every pet they've ever owned.

The only arguments Clayton and I have are over the children. He says my son is a sissy and he thinks my girls are stupid. I've told him that his children are savages and if I was in charge of them they'd toe the mark or else.

Do you think we could have a good marriage in the light of these facts? I want to marry him but I'm worried.—
JANGLED NERVES

DEAR JANGLED: There are seven very good reasons why you should not marry Clayton. His four and your three.

You say the only arguments you ever have are over the children. That can put any marriage on the rocks. The word from here is no.

DEAR ANN: My brother and I married into the same family. This means we have the same in-laws.

My brother had a nasty argument with his wife's parents and they are not on speaking terms.

I'm planning a party for my parents' 35th wedding anniversary next month. Of course I want to invite my in-laws but I'm afraid of trouble because of the bad feeling with my brother. I'd hate to have the party ruined by a battle royal, and knowing the tempers involved here, Ann, anything could happen. Please tell me what to do.—B.T.X.

DEAR B.T.X.: Ignore the feuding. Invite everyone just as if you knew nothing of the problem. It is up to them to behave with civility and maturity.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The girl has written a book. The girl is Ann Landers. The Publisher is Prentice-Hall. The book is called "Since You Ask Me."

Baltimore Man To Serve Here

During the Lutheran evangelism mission being held in four Allegany County churches from October 29 through November 3, St. John's congregation will be served by Rev. David H. Hanrodt, pastor of Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Baltimore.

A graduate of Loyola College in Baltimore in 1943, he entered Lancaster Theological Seminary and graduated in 1945 with a bachelor of Divinity degree. He continued his studies at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg in 1947 and 1948.

He served the Protestant Community Church at Middle River from 1945 to 1947. In 1948 he assisted Dr. Paul C. Burgdorf at Jerusalem and in 1948 became the pastor. He and his wife, Miriam, have two sons, John Henry, 14, and Thomas Paul, 9.

Rev. Mr. Hanrodt is director of Lutheran World Action for Maryland Synod and is a member of the parish education committee for the Synod. He is also a teacher in parish administration and contemporary religious sects at the Lutheran Deaconess Training School.

Defector Denies He Kidnaped By Dutch

THE HAGUE, Holland (UPI)—The Soviet Embassy Wednesday charged Dutch authorities with kidnaping and holding a Soviet scientist against his will, but the defector promptly denied the charge by saying he is staying in Holland "of my own free will."

"Dutch police have not influenced me in this," Alexei Golub told a news conference. He said he had made up his mind to defect to the West "some years ago."

The 5,100,000-person gain in California from 1950 to 1960 accounted for nearly one-fifth of the population increase in the United States.

I hate to complain to my husband, but I just can't take his brother every weekend of my life. I don't want to seem unsympathetic but we have a life of our own to live.—S.O.I.

DEAR S.O.I.: Your husband is asking too much of his family. Every other weekend is often enough for Gerald to come to visit. And he should not share your son's bedroom under any circumstances. He should be driven back to the hospital to spend the night.

Explain to your children and their friends that Uncle Gerald is mentally ill and that he needs understanding. Tell them to treat him as they would any other adult and to make allowances for his peculiarities.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a divorced woman with three lovely children. The man I've been going with for two years is a widower. He has four of the wildest, most ill-mannered kids I've ever seen in my life. His youngest child is so mean and destructive that they can't even keep a canary in the house. Something "mysterious" has happened to every pet they've ever owned.

The only arguments Clayton and I have are over the children. He says my son is a sissy and he thinks my girls are stupid. I've told him that his children are savages and if I was in charge of them they'd toe the mark or else.

Do you think we could have a good marriage in the light of these facts? I want to marry him but I'm worried.—

JANGLED NERVES

DEAR JANGLED: There are seven very good reasons why you should not marry Clayton. His four and your three.

You say the only arguments you ever have are over the children. That can put any marriage on the rocks. The word from here is no.

DEAR ANN: My brother and I married into the same family. This means we have the same in-laws.

My brother had a nasty argument with his wife's parents and they are not on speaking terms.

I'm planning a party for my parents' 35th wedding anniversary next month. Of course I want to invite my in-laws but I'm afraid of trouble because of the bad feeling with my brother. I'd hate to have the party ruined by a battle royal, and knowing the tempers involved here, Ann, anything could happen. Please tell me what to do.—B.T.X.

DEAR B.T.X.: Ignore the feuding. Invite everyone just as if you knew nothing of the problem. It is up to them to behave with civility and maturity.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The girl has written a book. The girl is Ann Landers. The Publisher is Prentice-Hall. The book is called "Since You Ask Me."

Claim More Engineers

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Communist party newspaper Pravda said Thursday the Soviet Union has more than twice as many engineers as the United States. It said the gap will grow because Russia graduates three times as many eingineers each year.

Baltimore Man To Serve Here

During the Lutheran evangelism mission being held in four Allegany County churches from October 29 through November 3, St. John's congregation will be served by Rev. David H. Hanrodt, pastor of Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Baltimore.

A graduate of Loyola College in Baltimore in 1943, he entered Lancaster Theological Seminary and graduated in 1945 with a bachelor of Divinity degree. He continued his studies at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg in 1947 and 1948.

He served the Protestant Community Church at Middle River from 1945 to 1947. In 1948 he assisted Dr. Paul C. Burgdorf at Jerusalem and in 1948 became the pastor. He and his wife, Miriam, have two sons, John Henry, 14, and Thomas Paul, 9.

Rev. Mr. Hanrodt is director of Lutheran World Action for Maryland Synod and is a member of the parish education committee for the Synod. He is also a teacher in parish administration and contemporary religious sects at the Lutheran Deaconess Training School.

Defector Denies He Kidnaped By Dutch

THE HAGUE, Holland (UPI)—The Soviet Embassy Wednesday charged Dutch authorities with kidnaping and holding a Soviet scientist against his will, but the defector promptly denied the charge by saying he is staying in Holland "of my own free will."

"Dutch police have not influenced me in this," Alexei Golub told a news conference. He said he had made up his mind to defect to the West "some years ago."

The 5,100,000-person gain in California from 1950 to 1960 accounted for nearly one-fifth of the population increase in the United States.

Fire Unit Plans Open House Today

Flintstone Volunteer Fire Company will conclude its observance of Fire Prevention Week with an open house today at its Fire Hall.

Saturday's program will start at 5 p.m. with a community parade, Chief Huffman said. Following the parade, firefighting and rescue equipment will be open for public inspection at the Fire Hall.

Members of the company will present a rescue operation during the program at the Fire Hall. Refreshments will be served.

Poison Atmosphere Hard To Determine

Extent to which Russia is poisoning the atmosphere for all mankind by her nuclear weapons tests cannot be determined scientifically. Since September 1 the Reds have set off a score of nuclear explosions, totaling more than 10 megatons.

While 10 megatons in a year was held in 1957 to be the limit of safety, that figure may have been too high—especially for Soviet tests, which in the past have been shown to produce fallout about three times as fast as Western tests in the atmosphere.

So Dr. Ralph A. Lapp, atomic scientist, holds that Soviet tests have already exceeded the so-called safe annual limit. Some American scientists disagree. The very concept of a safe limit is open to question. All radiation is bad, and it cannot be said with assurance that even a little of it is safe or harmless.

Fallout from atmospheric tests such as the Russians are making affects the vital processes of animals and plants. Whatever harm is done by moderate doses of the poison can hardly be measured or judged, because it may merely render the organism more susceptible to damage from more familiar microorganisms and ailments.

There should be more indignation than there is, especially among neutralists and the UN, against the poisoning of the atmosphere. More thought should be concentrated on poisoning of the sea, through the dumping of radioactive wastes resulting from non-military nuclear devices. Can those wastes really be shielded and packaged to prevent them from contaminating sea water? Destruction of all marine life would be a catastrophe for mankind.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Forthcoming Soviet Program

Each time a Soviet Communist Party program is enunciated, thousands of words are written, which are read with the greatest care by Communists throughout the world, and by the experts in all foreign offices. The Party Congress program is canonical and deviation from it means counter-revolution and can result in expulsion from the party which often involves serious consequences for the individual concerned. For some, it has meant death.

The Congress is to be held this month and to it will go all the important Communist leaders from all parts of the world. Members of the party will watch who sits on the platform, for not only does the presence on the platform but the position of the individual, the propinquity to Khrushchev, determine a man's importance and his future.

The document is a paean to Soviet accomplishments:

> "The great October Socialist Revolution ushered in a new era in the history of mankind, the era of the downfall of capitalism and the establishment of Communism. Socialism has triumphed in the Soviet Union and has achieved decisive victories in the people's democracies; socialism has become a cause of practical significance to hundreds of millions of people, and the bearer of the revolutionary movement of the working class throughout the world."

Further, the Platform says:

"One-third of mankind is building a new life under the banner of scientific communism. The first contingents of the working class to shake off obsolete oppression are facilitating victory for fresh contingents of their class brothers. The Socialist world is expanding; the capitalist world is shrinking. Socialism will inevitably succeed capitalism everywhere. Such is the objective law of social development. Imperialism is powerless to check the irresistible process of emancipation."

It is this statement which will have an enormous influence in the former colonial countries. For when the Communists associate themselves with anti-imperialism, they take in a good part of the world that has been freed from colonialism, much of it through American aid. Thus the Afro-Asian nations are included in the success of Communism whereas, as a matter of fact, they have, most of them, not yet become stabilized in any political or economic system.

To Khrushchev that does not matter because he assumes power wherever he can; he accepts success wherever it suits his purposes. For instance, in the statement of the fundamental struggle, the Platform says not a word of the enormous progress that the worker has made in Western Europe and the United States. Instead, the party Platform says:

"Capitalism, by concentrating millions of workers in its factories, socializing the process of labor, imparts a social character to production; nevertheless it is the capitalists who appropriate the fruits of labor. This fundamental contradiction of capitalism—the contradiction between the social character of production and the private — capitalist form of appropriation — manifests itself in production anarchy and in the fact that the purchasing power of society falls short of the expansion of production and leads periodically to destructive economic crises."

> This is an interesting statement because it recognizes the socializing process of production in the capitalist countries. In the United States, for instance, increasingly the worker is an owner of the industry in which he works or of other industries. Some industries are owned by labor unions. In a Marxist country, all industry is owned by the state monopolistically and the worker only participates in ownership in the sense that as a citizen, he has certain rights within the state.

Furthermore in a Marxist country the worker is deprived of the most valuable fruits of production, namely, the choice of selection of consumers goods, for it is the state alone which determines what should be made and what should be used and in what quantities. And production is based upon the necessities of the state not upon the desires of the individual, which means that the state may deprive its own people of what they desire to give it to another nation for political reasons.

Freedom of choice of consumers goods the Platform calls production anarchy. For instance, why use steel to make automobiles when it is advantageous to the state to use steel for the manufacture of weapons of terror and war? In the Soviet concept of a planned society, only that is produced, the existence of which benefits the state. The individual does not matter. He is a statistical unit on a chart, a creature to serve the necessities of the state.

At Home Or Abroad, Rep. Rivers Continues His Junketing Habits

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — One problem which has concerned Congressmen about "the great Congressional exodus" to foreign countries this fall has been their colleague Mendel Rivers, the white-maned, elbow-bending solon from Charleston, S. C.

They can't very well deny to Rivers the free junkets they enjoy. Yet on previous trips abroad, Rivers has been such a bon vivant that Speaker Sam Rayburn made every effort to keep him at home.

In the interim, "the gentleman from South Carolina" has been a heavy user of Air Force planes on trips inside the USA. Time after time when Rivers wanted to go home over the weekend, a phone call to the Air Force brought a plane out on the runway on a Friday afternoon ready to fly to Charleston, with another plane waiting Monday morning to fly him back to Washington. Rivers got this kid-glove treatment because he is a member both of the House Armed Services Committee and the House Appropriations Committee, each with a powerful voice in military policy and spending.

This weekend, however, Rivers is switching from domestic travel back to foreign travel—ostensibly to inspect military bases and operations. He is flying to England, France and Germany in company with Rep. Charles Chamberlain, Michigan Republican.

Roll-Call Of Junkets

Meanwhile the old recruiting slogan "Join the Navy and See the World" might well be changed to "Get Elected to Congress and See the World." Here is the continuing roll-call of Congressmen now junketing or planning junkets abroad at the taxpayers' expense:

The House Judiciary Committee—Some of its members went first to Italy to celebrate the anniversary of Italian unification, and are still traveling around Europe: among them are Peter Rodino of Newark, N. J., Roland Libonati of Chicago, and Carlton Loser of Nashville.

Congressman Rodino is seeking information about "the plans of West European nations for the continuance of representative government in the event of all-out war."

Inter-Parliamentary Union — Eleven House members attended the Inter-Parliamentary Union Convention in Brussels. Though this trip was taken at the taxpayers' expense, it is important for the United States to be represented at these meetings.

House members who attended this year included Katharine St. George, N. Y., Alexander Pirnie, N. Y., John Byrnes, Wis., Gerald Ford, Mich., Charles Hoeven, Ia., all Republicans; with John Rooney, Brooklyn, Hale Boggs, La., W. R. Poage, Texas, D. S. Saund, Calif., and Paul Jones, Mo., all Democrats. Harold Cooley of North Carolina also attended the Brussels meeting and did not go to Rome as this column previously reported.

Armed Services Committee—A dozen or so Congressmen have been authorized to inspect military installations abroad, some of them very hard-working and conscientious solons who should do a good job. They include Jeffery Cohelan, Calif., Frank Kowalski, Conn., Porter Hardy, Va., Richard Lankford, Md., Daniel Brewster, Md., James Byrne, Pa., all Democrats; with William Bray, Ind., Frank Becker, N. Y., Walter Norblad, Ore., and James Van Zandt, Pa., all Republicans.

Victor Wickersham of Oklahoma, the Democrat who practices real estate on the side and has put various members of his family on the payroll, has also left on a tour of Western Europe; Democrat Clyde Doyle of California has left for a trip to Hawaii.

Study of Export Cartels—One member of the Judiciary Committee, Congressman Byron Rogers of Colorado, has mapped out an investigation all for himself. He is probing shipping and export cartels in Europe.

Trade Mission to Germany — Another Congressional group left Oct. 12 on a "trade mission" to West Germany. It includes Cornelius Gallagher, New Jersey Democrat, and Robert Barry, New York Republican, both of the Foreign Affairs Committee; plus Robert Hemphill, South Carolina Democrat, and Willard Curtin, Pennsylvania Republican, both of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. The group plans to spend about two weeks in Germany, chiefly in West Berlin and Frankfurt, discussing "mutual trade relations" with German government officials. After this, they will make a side junket to Madrid, "for a protocol visit." Just what this means nobody seems to know.

Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges, who is pushing hard for more U. S. exports and more European tourists to the United States, will accompany the Congressmen on part of the trip.

Behind The Scenes

Sen. Hiram Fong of Hawaii was quick to endorse the idea that Duke Kahanamoku, famed Olympic swimming champion, should run for the House of Representatives against one-armed Congressman Dan Inouye. Dan, who has made a name for himself in Washington and is very popular in Honolulu, would be extremely hard to beat. Senator Fong knows this and would much rather have the man who put Hawaii on the map in the 1912 Olympics running against Congressman Inouye than running against Hiram Fong four years hence . . . The liquor and tourist shops of Gov. Ralph Paiewonsky of the Virgin Islands face charges before the Federal Trade Commission of paying kickbacks to ship tour operators to bring tourists to their establishments. Rival stores charge this is in restraint of trade. The FTC is investigating. The Paiewonsky family stores have hired Harold Leventhal, general counsel of the Democratic National Committee, to defend. Paiewonsky used to be Democratic committeeman from the Virgin Islands.

Does Khrushchev See Kennedy's Firmness?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — If the men in Moscow have been under the illusion that the United States isn't determined to stand firm in the current crisis over Berlin, they must have been dismayed by President Kennedy's grim words at his Wednesday press conference.

It was an opportunity for the President to allay rumors that the American position might be weakening, and he made the most of it.

Foreign Minister Gromyko, by his talks with Secretary Rusk and with President Kennedy and with Prime Minister MacMillan, presumably has learned just what the Western position is. But the world had no definite or authoritative information until the President spoke.

In fact, Mr. Kennedy was careful in the choice of words. He said that all the conversations with the Soviets thus far had merely been exploratory — an attempt to define precisely the position of each side— and that this should not be called "negotiations."

This, of course, is a technical use of the word "negotiations," but it has nevertheless a particular purpose at the moment. For the United States government doesn't want to be represented as having advanced any compromise suggestions.

What then did all the conversation of the last ten days mean, and what is meant by the President's statement that the American ambassador to the Soviet Union, Llewellyn Thompson, is shortly to go from Washington to Moscow to resume talks? Those who are familiar with the history of diplomacy will recognize all this as a device that is used to keep the door open when there's a dispute that shows no signs of being immediately resolued. Indeed, Mr. Kennedy: "On the substance, we are not in sight of land."

It was important for President Kennedy to make it clear to the Kremlin that he hasn't retreated or receded and that he means to go ahead — even if it means war. What better way to emphasize this than to say it over radio and television to the assembled press in answer to impromptu questions?

For the Moscow government must make up its mind soon whether it will seek any further advances in the "cold war" and take risks on the American government's policies. Thus, for example, Mr. Kennedy in a few words gave the Russians something to think about when he announced that he had ordered General Mawxell Taylor of the White House staff to go to Vietnam and look things over. The President didn't say what kind of assistance America would give to its ally in Southeast Asia but left the plain inference that, when the general returns with his report, a decision will be made whether to send American military forces into Southeast Asia. A war in that region could involve Red China, which has no nuclear weapons.

This is a significant way also of advising Moscow that the United States isn't becoming preoccupied by the Berlin crisis and recognizes that there are things to be done in Laos and elsewhere to counter Communist aggression. It was a method of letting the Soviets know that the United States is not willing to give up in Laos either and stands ready there, as it does in West Berlin, to use force if necessary.

No light was shed by the President on any specific plan to settle by mutual agreement the disputed points in the Berlin controversy. This is not surprising. For Mr. Kennedy purposely gives the impression that he is biding his time and will not take precipitate action of any kind. He speaks of further conferences by the ambassadors of the two sides and some further talks with the other Western allies as to how the problems shall be handled in the next few weeks or months.

It has been reported, for instance, that President de Gaulle of France doesn't think there should be any negotiations until the Russians give some sign of making concessions. He is said to have been displeased by the recent talks with Foreign Minister Gromyko here and as inclined to describe them as "negotiations." Mr. Kennedy's words were undoubtedly intended to reassure the French President that no attempt had been made to carry on "negotiations." Externally at least, this helps to preserve allied solidarity.

The country cannot tell from anything Mr. Kennedy said to the press on Wednesday whether or not there's going to be war. But neither can Nikita Khrushchev. One point needs to be stressed. The President of the United States cannot trifle with the security of this country, and the Soviet Premier ought to take a good look at Mr. Kennedy's exact words. He pointedly referred to America's military build-up in recent months. When a President says that the United States means to defend its rights by force, if necessary, such a statement should not be discounted but should be taken seriously.

That's why Mr. Kennedy's comments at his press conference this week could play a vital part in shaping the future course of events in the world.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

PRESS CENTER—In these critical times, the accuracy, speed and clarity with which representatives of the foreign press file dispatches to their home newspapers is of vital importance to the U. S. government.

There is always a nagging fear that an unintentionally distorted news story, or an erroneous account of what some American official said, may touch off events which could have a serious effect on the conduct of foreign or military policy.

With this in mind, the U. S. is setting up a press center for foreign correspondents in New York City, where many of them are stationed in order to cover the United Nations.

The press center will be equipped with a special voice line from Washington so that important press conferences, briefings and speeches can be piped directly to the foreign correspondents.

One regular broadcast will be the daily news briefings at the State Department by news director Lincoln White. President Kennedy's news conferences will also be handled in this matter if technical difficulties can be overcome.

In addition to bringing Washington happenings to New York, the press center will also assist the foreign correspondents in arranging trips to other parts of the country and in seeing personalities they want to interview.

The center will be operated by the U. S. Information Agency. It is estimated to cost about $75,000 a year, and well worth it, according to White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, who was one of the prime movers in getting the idea adopted.

Rumors Do More Harm Than Many Diseases

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Mrs. V. H. writes: "In our neighborhood a rumor is spreading like a bad tumor and there are several mothers who won't let their children associate with a nice six-year-old girl. She comes from a clean home but she once had an occurrence of worms. Her mother claims she got rid of them by giving her daughter a laxative and that the child has not been bothered since.

"But one lady in the neighborhood, a nurse, claims it was not a thorough enough measure against worms, and if the child did not get the right medicine she would become totally infested with worms in time. This would lead to nervous disorders of the brain and could make her mentally unbalanced."

Rumors do more harm than many diseases and it is unfortunate that this nurse talked out of turn. Worms do not affect the brain. They may cause abdominal distress and diarrhea. Severe infestations may lead to listlessness, anemia and malnutrition. But the diagnosis is evident long before this point is reached.

The laxative this child received may have contained worm medicine, which cured the condition. In addition to all this, the mother may have thought she saw a pinworm but was mistaken.

At any rate, the neighbors are acting uncharitable in segregating this little girl. Someone should take the bull by the horns and settle the problem before the feelings of this youngster get hurt.

Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on pinworms if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

HEART DISEASE PHOBIA

A. S. writes: I'm 30 years old and have a terrible fear of heart disease. I get checkups every now and then and the doctor insists my heart is sound. How can I overcome this fear?

REPLY

Abnormal fears (phobias) are psychiatric problems. Why not discuss this situation with the physician who examines your heart? The next time you see him, say "Why am I so afraid of heart trouble?" instead of "Is my heart normal?"

DIABETIC KIN

R. T. writes: Why is it that many diabetics have no known relative with the disease?

REPLY

Diabetes often escapes detection in older persons, especially when the condition is mild. In addition, some people die or are killed before they develop the disease. These situations make family medical histories inaccurate and incomplete.

TONING THE MUSCLES

R. V. writes: Does walking tone the muscles of other parts of the body as well as those of the legs?

REPLY

Yes, especially if the arms are swung from the shoulders and the walker breathes deeply and pulls in the abdominal muscles.

NICOTINE STAINS

T. K. writes: Is smoking deleterious to the complexion?

REPLY

The skin of the face is not affected but yellowed fingers result when the cigaret is held upside down, allowing the smoke to curl between the digits. Occasionally a smoker's lip becomes irritated.

SORE THROAT

E. C. writes: I have had sore throat for six months but the doctor assures me I do not have a growth. Do you think I ought to have further tests?

REPLY

Yes, A sore throat lasting six months may stem from nervousness or a specific infection.

HEBERDEN'S NODES

A. L. writes: Is there any cure for painful lumps on the first joints of the index fingers?

REPLY

No. These lumps (Heberden's nodes) will persist but pain disappears in time.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Retail booksellers are reputed to be reasonably impractical fellows, but Jerome Beatty has spotted one that obviously is sharp as a tack. He's upped the sales of Louisa M. Alcott's Modern Library edition of "Little Women" to an average of 19 copies a day by putting a pile of the books in his window, topped by a vivid poster proclaiming "FOUR YOUNG GIRLS TELL ALL!"

The London Daily Mail reported the sad saga of a model British husband yclept Richard Minns who was sentenced to one year in the clink for administering chloroform to his wife every night "for a period of weeks." Minns pleaded guilty to the charge but complained to the judge "he was just trying to keep the little woman quiet."

Several persons in court, added the reporter, expressed "genuine sympathy for the culprit."

A stout lady approached a lovely young salesgirl and inquired as to the whereabouts of the perfume counter. The salesgirl suggested politely, "Just walk this way, ma'am." "Hmpfhh," commented the customer. "If I could walk that way, my dear, I wouldn't need perfume."

New Literature

By John Crosby

"There was bread everywhere and me so hungry, you have no idea how it feels." That's a sample of the prose style in "The Children of Sanchez," which is a tape-recorded autobiography of a Mexican family collected on a tape recorder by Oscar Lewis who is more anthropologist than writer. "A new kind of literature of social realism," says Lewis. Maybe the end of the writer.

"The lives of the poor are not dull," says Lewis. "The stories in this volume reveal a world of violence and death, of suffering and deprivation, of infidelity and broken homes, of delinquency, corruption and police brutality, and of the cruelty of the poor to the poor." That's Lewis' own style: now listen to one of the children in his own tape recorded words:

"Every year the Three Kings came on the sixth of January and left us toys in the flowerpot stand where my mother kept her favorite plants. But one sixth of January the Three Kings were unable to come to our poor house, and I felt I was the unluckiest child in the world. We went looking in the flowerpot stand; then we looked in the brazier to see if the Kings left something for us in the ashes. Unfortunately, they didn't, so all that was left for us to do, was to go out in the courtyard and watch our friends play with their toys. When they asked 'What did the Kings bring you?' Manuel and I said 'They didn't bring us anything.'

"It was the last sixth of January my mother spent with us before she died. After that I cried for years."

The intense simplicity hits you where you live: "I guess the worst thing that happened to me and my brother was to grow up because I was very happy until I was eight."

The Sanchezes are a miserably poor family living mostly in one room in Mexico City but while the problems are different and certainly worse than those of the rest of us, the psychology differs not a hair. Consuelo, the oldest daughter, suffers intensely and, I rather suspect, is permanently stunted and warped as a human being because her father doesn't love her. "I began to doubt that I was really his daughter. He never hit me but the words he said to me were worse than whiplashes. . . . I never answered back; I couldn't. The words wouldn't come out of my mouth."

She's the prettiest, Consuelo, and the most unloving. It bothered her father that he couldn't love his children more. He got little affection when he was young, he says, and you can see how lovelessness gets passed along from generation to generation, getting worse and worse. Not that Sanchez was the same with all his children. Marta was his pet. Consequently "My childhood was the happiest any girl could have. I could do what I wanted and hardly ever get punished. If I cried, papa petted and gave me money." Yet Marta grew up, the wildest, the most spoiled, and at least as unhappy as the others.

The poor are always with us but the nature of poverty and the poor changes. Sanchez' children are not nearly the person he is. No matter how poor, (he works for 30 years in a restaurant) he supports all the women he has had children by and even winds up supporting his grandchildren. He is stern but responsible and decent parent.

The quality of poverty and the poor, like the quality of everything else, seems to be going down. You get the impression that the old grandmother was twice the person Sanchez was. Manuel reports: "My grandmother was steeped in religion, even more than my mama... On the Day of the Dead, she lit the candles, put the glass of water, the bread of the dead, the flowers, the fruit. After she and my mother died, no one ever did that in our house. My grandmother was the only one rich in tradition and who tried to pass it on to us."

If the poor are stripped of the tradition and belief what's left? It's a sad, sad story and it seems to be getting sadder. Here are Consuelo's closing words:

"What is happening to my family? Oh God! They are destroying themselves, little by little. They are using themselves up, disappearing slowly like my uncles, my mother, my grandmother...they have all gone and left me too soon. Now my aunt Guadalupe is like a light going out, a wax candle at the foot of the altar. Marta is but 24 years old and looks over thirty. Each year I think this will be Roberto's last. Manuel? Yes, he will live but at whose cost? How many more times will he test the love of his children by denying them food? It is horrible to think he will survive his own children."

Poison Atmosphere Hard To Determine

Extent to which Russia is poisoning the atmosphere for all mankind by her nuclear weapons tests cannot be determined scientifically. Since September 1 the Reds have set off a score of nuclear explosions, totaling more than 10 megatons.

While 10 megatons in a year was held in 1957 to be the limit of safety, that figure may have been too high—especially for Soviet tests, which in the past have been shown to produce fallout about three times as fast as Western tests in the atmosphere.

So Dr. Ralph A. Lapp, atomic scientist, holds that Soviet tests have already exceeded the so-called safe annual limit. Some American scientists disagree. The very concept of a safe limit is open to question. All radiation is bad, and it cannot be said with assurance that even a little of it is safe or harmless.

Fallout from atmospheric tests such as the Russians are making affects the vital processes of animals and plants. Whatever harm is done by moderate doses of the poison can hardly be measured or judged, because it may merely render the organism more susceptible to damage from more familiar microorganisms and ailments.

There should be more indignation than there is, especially among neutralists and the UN, against the poisoning of the atmosphere. More thought should be concentrated on poisoning of the sea, through the dumping of radioactive wastes resulting from non-military nuclear devices. Can those wastes really be shielded and packaged to prevent them from contaminating sea water? Destruction of all marine life would be a catastrophe for mankind.

Forthcoming Soviet Program

Each time a Soviet Communist Party program is enunciated, thousands of words are written, which are read with the greatest care by Communists throughout the world, and by the experts in all foreign offices. The Party Congress program is canonical and deviation from it means counter-revolution and can result in expulsion from the party which often involves serious consequences for the individual concerned. For some, it has meant death.

The Congress is to be held this month and to it will go all the important Communist leaders from all parts of the world. Members of the party will watch who sits on the platform, for not only does the presence on the platform but the position of the individual, the propinquity to Khrushchev, determine a man's importance and his future.

The document is a paean to Soviet accomplishments:

> "The great October Socialist Revolution ushered in a new era in the history of mankind, the era of the downfall of capitalism and the establishment of Communism. Socialism has triumphed in the Soviet Union and has achieved decisive victories in the people's democracies; socialism has become a cause of practical significance to hundreds of millions of people, and the bearer of the revolutionary movement of the working class throughout the world."

Further, the Platform says:

"One-third of mankind is building a new life under the banner of scientific communism. The first contingents of the working class to shake off obsolete oppression are facilitating victory for fresh contingents of their class brothers. The Socialist world is expanding; the capitalist world is shrinking. Socialism will inevitably succeed capitalism everywhere. Such is the objective law of social development. Imperialism is powerless to check the irresistible process of emancipation."

It is this statement which will have an enormous influence in the former colonial countries. For when the Communists associate themselves with anti-imperialism, they take in a good part of the world that has been freed from colonialism, much of it through American aid. Thus the Afro-Asian nations are included in the success of Communism whereas, as a matter of fact, they have, most of them, not yet become stabilized in any political or economic system.

To Khrushchev that does not matter because he assumes power wherever he can; he accepts success wherever it suits his purposes. For instance, in the statement of the fundamental struggle, the Platform says not a word of the enormous progress that the worker has made in Western Europe and the United States. Instead, the party Platform says:

"Capitalism, by concentrating millions of workers in its factories, socializing the process of labor, imparts a social character to production; nevertheless it is the capitalists who appropriate the fruits of labor. This fundamental contradiction of capitalism—the contradiction between the social character of production and the private — capitalist form of appropriation — manifests itself in production anarchy and in the fact that the purchasing power of society falls short of the expansion of production and leads periodically to destructive economic crises."

> This is an interesting statement because it recognizes the socializing process of production in the capitalist countries. In the United States, for instance, increasingly the worker is an owner of the industry in which he works or of other industries. Some industries are owned by labor unions. In a Marxist country, all industry is owned by the state monopolistically and the worker only participates in ownership in the sense that as a citizen, he has certain rights within the state.

Furthermore in a Marxist country the worker is deprived of the most valuable fruits of production, namely, the choice of selection of consumers goods, for it is the state alone which determines what should be made and what should be used and in what quantities. And production is based upon the necessities of the state not upon the desires of the individual, which means that the state may deprive its own people of what they desire to give it to another nation for political reasons.

Freedom of choice of consumers goods the Platform calls production anarchy. For instance, why use steel to make automobiles when it is advantageous to the state to use steel for the manufacture of weapons of terror and war? In the Soviet concept of a planned society, only that is produced, the existence of which benefits the state. The individual does not matter. He is a statistical unit on a chart, a creature to serve the necessities of the state.

Does Khrushchev See Kennedy's Firmness?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — If the men in Moscow have been under the illusion that the United States isn't determined to stand firm in the current crisis over Berlin, they must have been dismayed by President Kennedy's grim words at his Wednesday press conference.

It was an opportunity for the President to allay rumors that the American position might be weakening, and he made the most of it.

Foreign Minister Gromyko, by his talks with Secretary Rusk and with President Kennedy and with Prime Minister MacMillan, presumably has learned just what the Western position is. But the world had no definite or authoritative information until the President spoke.

In fact, Mr. Kennedy was careful in the choice of words. He said that all the conversations with the Soviets thus far had merely been exploratory — an attempt to define precisely the position of each side— and that this should not be called "negotiations."

This, of course, is a technical use of the word "negotiations," but it has nevertheless a particular purpose at the moment. For the United States government doesn't want to be represented as having advanced any compromise suggestions.

What then did all the conversation of the last ten days mean, and what is meant by the President's statement that the American ambassador to the Soviet Union, Llewellyn Thompson, is shortly to go from Washington to Moscow to resume talks? Those who are familiar with the history of diplomacy will recognize all this as a device that is used to keep the door open when there's a dispute that shows no signs of being immediately resolued. Indeed, Mr. Kennedy: "On the substance, we are not in sight of land."

It was important for President Kennedy to make it clear to the Kremlin that he hasn't retreated or receded and that he means to go ahead — even if it means war. What better way to emphasize this than to say it over radio and television to the assembled press in answer to impromptu questions?

For the Moscow government must make up its mind soon whether it will seek any further advances in the "cold war" and take risks on the American government's policies. Thus, for example, Mr. Kennedy in a few words gave the Russians something to think about when he announced that he had ordered General Mawxell Taylor of the White House staff to go to Vietnam and look things over. The President didn't say what kind of assistance America would give to its ally in Southeast Asia but left the plain inference that, when the general returns with his report, a decision will be made whether to send American military forces into Southeast Asia. A war in that region could involve Red China, which has no nuclear weapons.

This is a significant way also of advising Moscow that the United States isn't becoming preoccupied by the Berlin crisis and recognizes that there are things to be done in Laos and elsewhere to counter Communist aggression. It was a method of letting the Soviets know that the United States is not willing to give up in Laos either and stands ready there, as it does in West Berlin, to use force if necessary.

No light was shed by the President on any specific plan to settle by mutual agreement the disputed points in the Berlin controversy. This is not surprising. For Mr. Kennedy purposely gives the impression that he is biding his time and will not take precipitate action of any kind. He speaks of further conferences by the ambassadors of the two sides and some further talks with the other Western allies as to how the problems shall be handled in the next few weeks or months.

It has been reported, for instance, that President de Gaulle of France doesn't think there should be any negotiations until the Russians give some sign of making concessions. He is said to have been displeased by the recent talks with Foreign Minister Gromyko here and as inclined to describe them as "negotiations." Mr. Kennedy's words were undoubtedly intended to reassure the French President that no attempt had been made to carry on "negotiations." Externally at least, this helps to preserve allied solidarity.

The country cannot tell from anything Mr. Kennedy said to the press on Wednesday whether or not there's going to be war. But neither can Nikita Khrushchev. One point needs to be stressed. The President of the United States cannot trifle with the security of this country, and the Soviet Premier ought to take a good look at Mr. Kennedy's exact words. He pointedly referred to America's military build-up in recent months. When a President says that the United States means to defend its rights by force, if necessary, such a statement should not be discounted but should be taken seriously.

That's why Mr. Kennedy's comments at his press conference this week could play a vital part in shaping the future course of events in the world.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

PRESS CENTER—In these critical times, the accuracy, speed and clarity with which representatives of the foreign press file dispatches to their home newspapers is of vital importance to the U. S. government.

There is always a nagging fear that an unintentionally distorted news story, or an erroneous account of what some American official said, may touch off events which could have a serious effect on the conduct of foreign or military policy.

With this in mind, the U. S. is setting up a press center for foreign correspondents in New York City, where many of them are stationed in order to cover the United Nations.

The press center will be equipped with a special voice line from Washington so that important press conferences, briefings and speeches can be piped directly to the foreign correspondents.

One regular broadcast will be the daily news briefings at the State Department by news director Lincoln White. President Kennedy's news conferences will also be handled in this matter if technical difficulties can be overcome.

In addition to bringing Washington happenings to New York, the press center will also assist the foreign correspondents in arranging trips to other parts of the country and in seeing personalities they want to interview.

The center will be operated by the U. S. Information Agency. It is estimated to cost about $75,000 a year, and well worth it, according to White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, who was one of the prime movers in getting the idea adopted.

Rumors Do More Harm Than Many Diseases

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Mrs. V. H. writes: "In our neighborhood a rumor is spreading like a bad tumor and there are several mothers who won't let their children associate with a nice six-year-old girl. She comes from a clean home but she once had an occurrence of worms. Her mother claims she got rid of them by giving her daughter a laxative and that the child has not been bothered since.

"But one lady in the neighborhood, a nurse, claims it was not a thorough enough measure against worms, and if the child did not get the right medicine she would become totally infested with worms in time. This would lead to nervous disorders of the brain and could make her mentally unbalanced."

Rumors do more harm than many diseases and it is unfortunate that this nurse talked out of turn. Worms do not affect the brain. They may cause abdominal distress and diarrhea. Severe infestations may lead to listlessness, anemia and malnutrition. But the diagnosis is evident long before this point is reached.

The laxative this child received may have contained worm medicine, which cured the condition. In addition to all this, the mother may have thought she saw a pinworm but was mistaken.

At any rate, the neighbors are acting uncharitable in segregating this little girl. Someone should take the bull by the horns and settle the problem before the feelings of this youngster get hurt.

Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on pinworms if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

HEART DISEASE PHOBIA

A. S. writes: I'm 30 years old and have a terrible fear of heart disease. I get checkups every now and then and the doctor insists my heart is sound. How can I overcome this fear?

REPLY

Abnormal fears (phobias) are psychiatric problems. Why not discuss this situation with the physician who examines your heart? The next time you see him, say "Why am I so afraid of heart trouble?" instead of "Is my heart normal?"

DIABETIC KIN

R. T. writes: Why is it that many diabetics have no known relative with the disease?

REPLY

Diabetes often escapes detection in older persons, especially when the condition is mild. In addition, some people die or are killed before they develop the disease. These situations make family medical histories inaccurate and incomplete.

TONING THE MUSCLES

R. V. writes: Does walking tone the muscles of other parts of the body as well as those of the legs?

REPLY

Yes, especially if the arms are swung from the shoulders and the walker breathes deeply and pulls in the abdominal muscles.

NICOTINE STAINS

T. K. writes: Is smoking deleterious to the complexion?

REPLY

The skin of the face is not affected but yellowed fingers result when the cigaret is held upside down, allowing the smoke to curl between the digits. Occasionally a smoker's lip becomes irritated.

SORE THROAT

E. C. writes: I have had sore throat for six months but the doctor assures me I do not have a growth. Do you think I ought to have further tests?

REPLY

Yes, A sore throat lasting six months may stem from nervousness or a specific infection.

HEBERDEN'S NODES

A. L. writes: Is there any cure for painful lumps on the first joints of the index fingers?

REPLY

No. These lumps (Heberden's nodes) will persist but pain disappears in time.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Retail booksellers are reputed to be reasonably impractical fellows, but Jerome Beatty has spotted one that obviously is sharp as a tack. He's upped the sales of Louisa M. Alcott's Modern Library edition of "Little Women" to an average of 19 copies a day by putting a pile of the books in his window, topped by a vivid poster proclaiming "FOUR YOUNG GIRLS TELL ALL!"

The London Daily Mail reported the sad saga of a model British husband yclept Richard Minns who was sentenced to one year in the clink for administering chloroform to his wife every night "for a period of weeks." Minns pleaded guilty to the charge but complained to the judge "he was just trying to keep the little woman quiet."

Several persons in court, added the reporter, expressed "genuine sympathy for the culprit."

A stout lady approached a lovely young salesgirl and inquired as to the whereabouts of the perfume counter. The salesgirl suggested politely, "Just walk this way, ma'am." "Hmpfhh," commented the customer. "If I could walk that way, my dear, I wouldn't need perfume."

At Home Or Abroad, Rep. Rivers Continues His Junketing Habits

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — One problem which has concerned Congressmen about "the great Congressional exodus" to foreign countries this fall has been their colleague Mendel Rivers, the white-maned, elbow-bending solon from Charleston, S. C.

They can't very well deny to Rivers the free junkets they enjoy. Yet on previous trips abroad, Rivers has been such a bon vivant that Speaker Sam Rayburn made every effort to keep him at home.

In the interim, "the gentleman from South Carolina" has been a heavy user of Air Force planes on trips inside the USA. Time after time when Rivers wanted to go home over the weekend, a phone call to the Air Force brought a plane out on the runway on a Friday afternoon ready to fly to Charleston, with another plane waiting Monday morning to fly him back to Washington. Rivers got this kid-glove treatment because he is a member both of the House Armed Services Committee and the House Appropriations Committee, each with a powerful voice in military policy and spending.

This weekend, however, Rivers is switching from domestic travel back to foreign travel—ostensibly to inspect military bases and operations. He is flying to England, France and Germany in company with Rep. Charles Chamberlain, Michigan Republican.

Roll-Call Of Junkets

Meanwhile the old recruiting slogan "Join the Navy and See the World" might well be changed to "Get Elected to Congress and See the World." Here is the continuing roll-call of Congressmen now junketing or planning junkets abroad at the taxpayers' expense:

The House Judiciary Committee —Some of its members went first to Italy to celebrate the anniversary of Italian unification, and are still traveling around Europe: among them are Peter Rodino of Newark, N. J., Roland Libonati of Chicago, and Carlton Loser of Nashville.

Congressman Rodino is seeking information about "the plans of West European nations for the continuance of representative government in the event of all-out war."

Inter - Parliamentary Union — Eleven House members attended the Inter-Parliamentary Union Convention in Brussels. Though this trip was taken at the taxpayers' expense, it is important for the United States to be represented at these meetings.

House members who attended this year included Katharine St. George, N. Y., Alexander Pirnie, N. Y., John Byrnes, Wis., Gerald Ford, Mich., Charles Hoeven, Ia., all Republicans: with John Rooney, Brooklyn, Hale Boggs, La., W. R. Poage, Texas, D. S. Saund, Calif., and Paul Jones, Mo., all Democrats. Harold Cooley of North Carolina also attended the Brussels meeting and did not go to Rome as this column previously reported.

Armed Services Committee—A dozen or so Congressmen have been authorized to inspect military installations abroad, some of them very hard-working and conscientious solons who should do a good job. They include Jeffery Cohelan, Calif., Frank Kowalski, Conn., Porter Hardy, Va., Richard Lankford, Md., Daniel Brewster, Md., James Byrne, Pa., all Democrats; with William Bray, Ind., Frank Becker, N. Y., Walter Norblad, Ore., and James Van Zandt, Pa., all Republicans.

Victor Wickersham of Oklahoma, the Democrat who practices real estate on the side and has put various members of his family on the payroll, has also left on a tour of Western Europe; Democrat Clyde Doyle of California has left for a trip to Hawaii.

Study of Export Cartels—One member of the Judiciary Committee, Congressman Byron Rogers of Colorado, has mapped out an investigation all for himself. He is probing shipping and export cartels in Europe.

Trade Mission to Germany — Another Congressional group left Oct. 12 on a "trade mission" to West Germany. It includes Cornelius Gallagher, New Jersey Democrat, and Robert Barry, New York Republican, both of the Foreign Affairs Committee; plus Robert Hemphill, South Carolina Democrat, and Willard Curtin, Pennsylvania Republican, both of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. The group plans to spend about two weeks in Germany, chiefly in West Berlin and Frankfurt, discussing "mutual trade relations" with German government officials. After this, they will make a side junket to Madrid, "for a protocol visit." Just what this means nobody seems to know.

Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges, who is pushing hard for more U. S. exports and more European tourists to the United States, will accompany the Congressmen on part of the trip.

Behind The Scenes

Sen. Hiram Fong of Hawaii was quick to endorse the idea that Duke Kahanamoku, famed Olympic swimming champion, should run for the House of Representatives against one-armed Congressman Dan Inouye. Dan, who has made a name for himself in Washington and is very popular in Honolulu, would be extremely hard to beat. Senator Fong knows this and would much rather have the man who put Hawaii on the map in the 1912 Olympics running against Congressman Inouye than running against Hiram Fong four years hence . . . The liquor and tourist shops of Gov. Ralph Paiewonsky of the Virgin Islands face charges before the Federal Trade Commission of paying kickbacks to ship tour operators to bring tourists to their establishments. Rival stores charge this is in restraint of trade. The FTC is investigating. The Paiewonsky family stores have hired Harold Leventhal, general counsel of the Democratic National Committee, to defend. Paiewonsky used to be Democratic committeeman from the Virgin Islands.

New Literature

By John Crosby

"There was bread everywhere and me so hungry, you have no idea how it feels." That's a sample of the prose style in "The Children of Sanchez," which is a tape-recorded autobiography of a Mexican family collected on a tape recorder by Oscar Lewis who is more anthropologist than writer. "A new kind of literature of social realism," says Lewis. Maybe the end of the writer.

An alert, red-shirted team of ballhawks from North Hagerstown High School, out-played but not out-fought, turned two Fort Hill High fumbles into touchdowns and beat the Sentinels, 18-14, last night in a hard-played Cumberland Valley Athletic League football contest at Fort Hill stadium before approximately 4,000 spectators.

Outgained 259 yards to 112 on the ground by a fast-running Fort Hill eleven which rolled up 16 first downs to the Hub's nine, Coach Mel Henry's North High gridders struck with startling swiftness in the second and third quarters for the winning six-pointers following two costly Sentinel fumbles.

Trailing 14-6 late in the first half with Fort Hill threatening to score again, the Hubs turned the tables when the hard-charging Hagerstown line knocked the ball from Ronnie Manges' grasp as he was about to pass from the visitors' 14.

Races For Touchdown

The ball squirted up field where 180- pound guard Jim Morrissey picked up the bounding ball on the Hub 40 and raced 60 yards behind a host of blockers for a North Hagerstown touchdown. The sudden turn-about score came with just two seconds remaining before the half ended, leaving North Hagerstown on the short end of a 14-12 count at intermission.

Then in the third quarter, Fort Hill again was on the march, having picked up three consecutive first downs to the Hagerstown 32 when Roy Collins smashed through the center of the Hub's line to the 20, but fumbled and guard Ronnie Kline plucked the ball out of the air and ran it back to the Hagerstown 40.

The visitors were forced to kick, however, when two penalties set the Hubs back and the ball was taken by Manges on the Sentinels 36.

Two plays later Rich Robinson fumbled a pitchout and Kline again pounced on the ball on the Fort Hill 16. Hagerstown moved to a first down on the Sentinel four and on the next play Halfback Joe Henderson plunged in for the winning touchdown.

Fort Hill, battling back desperately twice lost the ball on downs in the crucial fourth quarter, being halted on the Hubs' 34 early in the period and again on the Hagerstown three with only 1:11 remaining to be played.

Stop Fort Hill Drive

It was a determined Hagerstown band of oportunists that stopped the last Fort Hill drive, using a five-yard offsides penalty against the Sentinels to help the goal-line stand.

Fort Hill drove 49 yards in its final battle against the clock, picking up a first down on the Hagerstown seven. Collins plunged to the one on the next play but it was called back and Fort Hill was penalized to the 12. Manges and Colin Smith carried to the Hagerstown six in three plays and then Smith, taking a Manges pitchout, tried to go in for the winning six-pointer, but was spilled on a jarring tackle by Henderson on the three as the Hubs took over.

Fort Hill kicked off to the Henrymen to open the game and North Hagerstown marched 67 yards in just six plays, aided by two penalties against the Sentinels, to score the initial touchdown. A scintillating over-the-shoulder catch of a Dennis Wachter pass by Terry Stotler was good for 47 yards for the key play in the drive. Bill Bayliss plunged over from the one for the score.

Fort Hill came right back to march 63 yards in nine plays for its first touchdown in the opening quarter. Smith and Collins spearheaded the drive with Collins banging over from one yard out for the counter. Manges added the point from placement and Fort Hill led 7-6.

Manges Intercepts Pass

Midway in the second quarter, Fort Hill scored again when Manges intercepted a Wachter aerial on the Hagerstown 48 and returned it to the 35. Smith picked up 18 yards and Collins 12 in successive plays and three plays later Collins again dove over from the one for the score. Manges' second conversion made it 14-6.

The setback gave Fort Hill a 1-2-0 mark in the CVAL while the Hubs are 3-2-0 in league competition.

The loss also marked the first time that Fort Hill has dropped two games in a single season since 1956 when the Sentinels lost 20-0 to Hagerstown High and 20-14 to Front Royal, Virginia. The Sentinels' other loss this year was a 13-0 defeat at the hands of Frederick High's Cadets. The lineups:

Tommy James booted home two goals for Coach Johnny Meyers' Knights as they chalked up their third triumph against a tie this season.

James' two goals increased his total to six for the season as the Knights outplayed Beall to hand the Mountaineers their first loss.

New York Mets Buy Antonelli

Conditional Tag Placed On Hurler

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — The Milwaukee Braves Friday sold pitchers Ken MacKenzie and Johnny Antonelli to the New York Mets and called up some promising farmhands to protect them from the major league draft of of minor leaguers.

There was a conditional tag on the Antonelli sale, meaning he'll have to prove himself in spring drills or the deal is off.

Antonelli, after stardom with the New York and San Francisco Giants, came to the Braves late last season from the Cleveland Indians. It was with the Braves he got his start. But he saw little duty here last season, and was one of the expendables in the recent draft to stock the Mets and Houston Colts, who begin play next year.

MacKenzie, 27, has been in the Braves system since 1957, and was 6-4 at Louisville in the American Association last year.

Chiti Is Among Six Bought By Orioles

BALTIMORE (UPI) — The Baltimore Orioles Friday purchased five rookies and veteran major league catcher Harry Chiti from their minor league affiliates.

Added to the Orioles' roster were pitchers John Miller, Dace McNally, Darold Knowles, Howie Stethers, and Catcher Andy Etchebarren.

The 29-year-old Chiti, who formerly caught for the Chicago Cubs, Kansas City Athletics and Detroit Tigers, was bought from Rochester where he spent part of the season, hitting .321. Chiti also played with Denver of the American Association last season and batted .289.

Bayer Holds Lead In Ontario Open

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Big George Bayer of Miami slipped to a one-over-par 71 Friday but increased his lead to two strokes at the half-way point in the $20,000 Ontario Open Golf Tournament.

Bayer, who set the course record with 64 Thursday, has a 36-hole total of 135.

Young bobby Nichols of Midland, Tex,, was second with 137. The former Texas A&M player also shot a 71 over the wind-lashed Whispering Lakes golf course.

Tied for third at 138 were Billy Maxwell of Dallas and Dave Hill of Denver. Both shot 69s Friday. They and veteran Lloyd Mangrum of Apple Valley were the only three players to break par 36-34—70 Friday.

Waivers Asked On Tom Brewer

Veteran Pitcher Won 91 For Bosox

BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston Red Sox announced Friday that waivers have been asked on pitcher Tom Brewer and veteran catcher Joe Ginsberg prior to granting both men their unconditional releases.

The 30-year-old Brewer, a right-hander from Cheraw, S.C., was plagued with arm trouble through the 1961 season and was on the disabled list most of the year. He appeared in only 10 games, winning 3 and losing 2, and pitched 42 innings.

The 1961 season was the first in which Brewer failed to win at least 10 games for the Red Sox. His best year at Boston was 1956 when he had a 19-9 record. His eight-year record was 91 victories and 82 defeats.

Ginsberg, who was picked up by the Red Sox as a free agent midway through the 1961 season when Boston needed catching insurance, appeared in 24 games, mostly as a pinch-hitter. He batted .222.

St. Patrick's Seeks 4th Straight Win, Play Gaels Sunday

St. Patrick's front-running "Fighting Irish" will play St. Mary's Gaels at Marydale and SS. Peter & Paul will oppose St. Michael's at Frostburg in Catholic Youth Football League games on Sunday at 2 p.m.

St. Patrick's won the season opener from St. Mary's, 19-0, and will be shooting for win No. 4 tomorrow. Other wins were scored over SS. Peter & Paul, 13-12, and St. Michael's, 13-6. The Gaels, 1960 league champions, are 0-3 to date.

SS. Peter & Paul whipped St. Michael's, 6-0, in their series opener and is now 2-1. The Frostburg eleven has won one game and lost two.

Jensen Not Talking, Expected To Retire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Jackie Jensen, the blond "retiring" baseball player, said Friday that the Boston Red Sox will make an announcement about his future "in a short while."

The guess is that Jensen is through with baseball forever. But Jackie will admit to nothing.

"When I have any announcement to make," says the former star football player who developed into one of the baseball greats, "it will come from the Red Sox office in Boston.

Packers Made 2-Point Choice Over Browns

Bears Are Favored To Beat Baltimore

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International

Two of the more astute coaching brains in professional football meet for the first time Sunday when the Cleveland Browns entertain the Green Bay Packers in the National League's top game.

This will mark the first time Vince Lombardi of the Packers, a successful Johnny-come-lately among pro head coaches, matches strategy with Cleveland's "old master," Paul Brown. These teams have not played since 1956.

The Packers were 2-point favorites to beat the Browns before an expected crowd of 70,000 at Cleveland. The game could be a preview of the N.F.L.'s title playoff next December. Both are among the six teams tied at the top of the division standings with 3-1 records.

In another game involving clubs with 3-1 records, the New York Giants were favored by 7 points over the Cowboys at Dallas. And in the battle between the two N.F.L. teams with 0-4 records, the Pittsburgh Steelers were picked by 9 points at home against the Washington Redskins.

Eagles Over Cards

The champion Philadelphia Eagles (3-1) were the choice by 5 points over the Cardinals' "walking wounded" (2-2) at St. Louis; The San Francisco Forty-Niners (3-1) were 13 over the Vikings (3-3) at Minnesota; the Chicago Bears (2-2) were favored by 4 points at home against the Baltimore Colts (2-2), and the Detroit Lions (2-2) were picked by 8 at home over the Los Angeles Rams (1-3).

Hutchinson Heads AP Manager Poll; Dark Given Vote

NEW YORK (AP) — Cincinnati's Fred Hutchinson was a runaway selection as the National League's Manager of the Year for 1961—but he might not know about it yet.

Hutchinson was on a leisurely three or four-day drive from Cincinnati to his home in Brandenton, Fla. when the results of The Associated Press poll were announced Friday. He could not be contacted immediately.

The 42-year-old pilot received all but one of the 176 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The only dissenting ballot named Alvin Dark of the third place San Francisco Giants.

BOSTON (AP)—George Blanda kicked a dramatic 24-yard field goal five seconds before the final gun Friday night to give the Houston Oilers a 31-31 tie with Boston in an American Football League game marked by the record passing performance of Jackie Lee.

Lee, who tossed for more than 400 yards in shattering the loop mark of 375, raced the clock after Boston grabbed a 31-28 edge on a Butch Songin to Gino Cappelletti pass just 50 seconds from the end.

Lee's 25-yard pitch to Bill Groman at the Boston 17 set up the tying Blanda kick.

Petersburg High School's Vikings scored their third straight Potomac Valley Conference victory yesterday when they downed the Circleville High School Indians at Petersburg by the score of 20-13.

The win gave Coach Wayne Barr's eleven a 3-1-1 record in the conference. Circleville is 1-2 in the 11-school circuit.

A 17-yard punt return by Steve Bruce set up the first PHS score which was credited to Bruce who raced 23 yards around left end. Leroy Ketterman ran the extra point to make it 7-0 in the opening period.

Circleville came back to tie the score in the second period when Ron Williams passed 22 yards to Orville Harper and the same passing combination accounted for the extra point. Circleville had punted to the Vikings one and recovered Shaffer's fumble on the 25.

Petersburg marched 60 yards for its second score later in the second period with Ketterman going over from the four. Leroy also plunged the point to give the Vikings a 14-7 edge.

A 90-yard drive which started late in the third quarter and was climaxed by Bruce's 7-yard run gave Petersburg a two-touchdown lead early in the final stanza. Ketterman's run for the point was stopped.

Ron Williams' pass interception and 46-yard run to the Vikings' 22 set up the Indians' final td midway in the last period. Boggs went over from the one but Williams' failed to make it on his run for the extra point.

Coach Richard Harmison's Martinsburg High School Bulldogs broke their four-game losing streak and posted their initial win of the 1961 football campaign when they downed Allegany High School's Campers last night at Martinsburg by the score of 25-20.

The victory was the first in four outings for the Bulldogs in the Cumberland Valley Athletic League. Allegany, 1-4-0 overall, went down to defeat for the third straight time in the league. Last season the Campers won the title with a 6-0 record.

By dropping its fourth contest of the campaign Allegany has suffered its most defeats since the 1956 season when it finished with a 3-5-1 record.

Martinsburg took a 7-0 lead in the opening period when John Reuter scored on a 17-yard run and Tom Lewis plunged the extra point.

Two touchdowns in the second period enabled the Bulldogs to pile up a 19-0 lead before Allegany broke into the scoring column. Lewis tallied on a run from the two and Larry Hylton circled left end for six yards and a td.

A 17-yard touchdown dash by Mike Harvey broke the ice for Coach Ed Schwarz's team and Harvey also ran the extra point.

In the third period, the Campers scored on a 62-yard pass play executed by Fred Shank and Jeff Norris with the latter running 39 yards for the td.

Jim Mason tallied for Martinsburg on a 9-yard run and Allegany's final score in the third period was credited to Mike Harvey who ran over from the two. Dave Merrill plunged the point.

Allegany was in possession of the ball late in the final period but fumbled on the Martinsburg 45. The Bulldogs recovered and ran off several plays before time ran out.

U.S. Ryder Cup Team Wins Six Of Eight Tests

To Play 16 Matches With British Today

LYTHAM-St. ANNES, Eng. (UPI) — The United States took a 6-2 lead over Britain Friday in the foursome play of the Ryder Cup international golf competition with the American teams of Arnold Palmer-Billy Casper and Art Wall-Jay Hebert winning two matches each.

Friday's victories left the U.S. needing to win only seven of the 16 singles matches Saturday to win the cup for the 11th time in 14 of the biennial meetings.

Mike Souchak and Bill Collins and Capt. Jerry Barber and Dow Finsterwald won the other U.S. points.

Britain's points were won by Capt. Dai Rees and Ken Bousfield and the team of Christie O'Connor and Peter Alliss.

Palmer and Casper defeated Rees and Bousfield in the morning, 2 and 1, and beat Tom Panton and Bernard Hunt in the afternoon, 5 and 4.

Wall and Hebert turned back Panton and Hunt in the morning and triumphed over the O'Connor-Alliss team in the afternoon, 1 up.

Souchak, Collins Split

Souchak and Collins defeated the British team of Tom Haliburton and Neil Coles, 1 up in the morning but bowed in the afternoon match to Rees and Bousfield, 4 and 2.

Barber and Finsterwald did not play in the morning but in the afternoon defeated Haliburton and Coles 1 up. They took the place of the U. S. team of Gene Littler and Doug Ford, who lost their morning match to O'Connor and Alliss, 4 and 3.

The outcome of the foursome play was a bitter disappointment to the Britons, who had hoped to at least halve the first eight points, counting on their Rees-Bousfield and O'Connor-Alliss teams to win both their matches.

But the Britons generally could not overcome the superior putting of the favored Americans.

Sink Long Puts

Typical was the putting of Finsterwald and Hebert on the final green. Finsterwald sank one of 14 feet for victory and Hebert one of 18 feet, also for a triumph.

In the eight singles matches Saturday morning Ford will play Harry Weetman and Souchak will meet Ralph Moffitt. Neither of Britons played Friday. In the other matches it will be Palmer vs. Alliss, Casper vs. Bousfield, Hebert vs. Rees, Litter vs. Coles, Barber vs. Hunt and Finsterwald vs. O'Connor.

The pairings for the eight afternoon matches will not be made until the morning round is completed.

Cardinals Purchase Seven Minor Leaguers

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals purchased the contracts of seven minor league players Friday, thereby replacing the seven lost to the two new National League baseball teams.

Tenth Ranked Terps To Face Tarheel Team

Navy Will Battle Cornell At Ithaca

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pride is Coach Tom Nugent's sales pitch to his Maryland football players for Saturday's game against North Carolina.

Nugent admits he went as far as possible in firing up his team for its first three games, which they won over Southern Methodist, Clemson and Syracuse.

"Now it's up to them," to realize they are good and to uphold their ranking among the best 10 teams in the nation, Nugent said.

While dopesters were inclined to fear Maryland might be nonchalant in approaching North Carolina, the Terps haven't been on top of the heap long enough to become complacent.

The season has a long way to go and the Maryland squad has a lot of young players who are full of fire and brimstone.

North Carolina more than likely will try to show early it is out for blood. The Tarheels are smarting from a 27-0 setback at the hands of Clemson last week and as far as individual talent goes they take a back seat to no squad in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Navy will be in the same boat with Maryland in trying to forget the past. The Middies, also riding high after upsetting Miami, are at Cornell.

The Ivy League team was knocked for a loop last week by Harvard and on paper offer no problem to Navy.

The rest of the schedule for intercollegiate football teams in the state finds Frostburg appearing for the first time at home against Bridgewater, Western Maryland at Hampden-Sydney, Johns Hopkins at Haverford, Morgan at Howard and Maryland State at North Carolina A. & T.

Spivey Is Traded To Los Angeles Jets

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Pipers of the new American Basketball League Friday traded away center Bill Spivey to the Los Angeles Jets.

The 7-foot Spivey was dealt to the Jets of the ABL, along with Hank Whitney, in trade for 6-foot-9 center Nick Romanoff. It was a straight player deal between the two professional clubs.

Johnson Is Victor Over David Floyd

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Don Johnson, 126¾, of Los Angeles, stopped David Floyd, 127¾, of Australia, in the eighth round of a 12-round bout Friday night.

Johnson wore down the young Aussie with his relentless attack. It was a good comeback for the American. He was knocked out in the second round by Australian Les McLean last month.

An alert, red-shirted team of ballhawks from North Hagerstown High School, out-played but not out-fought, turned two Fort Hill High fumbles into touchdowns and beat the Sentinels, 18-14, last night in a hard-played Cumberland Valley Athletic League football contest at Fort Hill stadium before approximately 4,000 spectators.

Outgained 259 yards to 112 on the ground by a fast-running Fort Hill eleven which rolled up 16 first downs to the Hub's nine, Coach Mel Henry's North High gridders struck with startling swiftness in the second and third quarters for the winning six-pointers following two costly Sentinel fumbles.

Trailing 14-6 late in the first half with Fort Hill threatening to score again, the Hubs turned the tables when the hard-charging Hagerstown line knocked the ball from Ronnie Manges' grasp as he was about to pass from the visitors' 14.

Races For Touchdown

The ball squirted up field where 180- pound guard Jim Morrissey picked up the bounding ball on the Hub 40 and raced 60 yards behind a host of blockers for a North Hagerstown touchdown. The sudden turn-about score came with just two seconds remaining before the half ended, leaving North Hagerstown on the short end of a 14-12 count at intermission.

Then in the third quarter, Fort Hill again was on the march, having picked up three consecutive first downs to the Hagerstown 32 when Roy Collins smashed through the center of the Hub's line to the 20, but fumbled and guard Ronnie Kline plucked the ball out of the air and ran it back to the Hagerstown 40.

The visitors were forced to kick, however, when two penalties set the Hubs back and the ball was taken by Manges on the Sentinels 36.

Two plays later Rich Robinson fumbled a pitchout and Kline again pounced on the ball on the Fort Hill 16. Hagerstown moved to a first down on the Sentinel four and on the next play Halfback Joe Henderson plunged in for the winning touchdown.

Fort Hill, battling back desperately twice lost the ball on downs in the crucial fourth quarter, being halted on the Hubs' 34 early in the period and again on the Hagerstown three with only 1:11 remaining to be played.

Stop Fort Hill Drive

It was a determined Hagerstown band of oportunists that stopped the last Fort Hill drive, using a five-yard offsides penalty against the Sentinels to help the goal-line stand.

Fort Hill drove 49 yards in its final battle against the clock, picking up a first down on the Hagerstown seven. Collins plunged to the one on the next play but it was called back and Fort Hill was penalized to the 12. Manges and Colin Smith carried to the Hagerstown six in three plays and then Smith, taking a Manges pitchout, tried to go in for the winning six-pointer, but was spilled on a jarring tackle by Henderson on the three as the Hubs took over.

Fort Hill kicked off to the Henrymen to open the game and North Hagerstown marched 67 yards in just six plays, aided by two penalties against the Sentinels, to score the initial touchdown. A scintillating over-the-shoulder catch of a Dennis Wachter pass by Terry Stotler was good for 47 yards for the key play in the drive. Bill Bayliss plunged over from the one for the score.

Fort Hill came right back to march 63 yards in nine plays for its first touchdown in the opening quarter. Smith and Collins spearheaded the drive with Collins banging over from one yard out for the counter. Manges added the point from placement and Fort Hill led 7-6.

Manges Intercepts Pass

Midway in the second quarter, Fort Hill scored again when Manges intercepted a Wachter aerial on the Hagerstown 48 and returned it to the 35. Smith picked up 18 yards and Collins 12 in successive plays and three plays later Collins again dove over from the one for the score. Manges' second conversion made it 14-6.

The setback gave Fort Hill a 1-2-0 mark in the CVAL while the Hubs are 3-2-0 in league competition.

The loss also marked the first time that Fort Hill has dropped two games in a single season since 1956 when the Sentinels lost 20-0 to Hagerstown High and 20-14 to Front Royal, Virginia. The Sentinels' other loss this year was a 13-0 defeat at the hands of Frederick High's Cadets. The lineups:

Valley High's Black Knights maintained their grip on first place in the Western Maryland Inter-scholastic Soccer League yesterday by downing the defending champion Beall High Mountaineers, 3-1, at Lonaconing while runner-up Bruce edged the Flintstone High Aggies, 1-0, at Westernport.

Tommy James booted home two goals for Coach Johnny Meyers' Knights as they chalked up their third triumph against a tie this season.

James' two goals increased his total to six for the season as the Knights outplayed Beall to hand the Mountaineers their first loss.

A drive by Marvin Miller off a pass by Danny Young opened the scoring for Valley in the initial period. James added his goals in the third and fourth stanzas on passes from Marvin Miller and Keith Wilson after Beall had scored in the third period on Allan Eisel's penalty kick.

Approximately 450 fans witnessed the hard-fought contest. Best bets for the winners were Fred Sloan, James, Miller and Young for Valley while Tom Rankin and Eisel were outstanding for Coach Ebbie Finzel's Mountaineers.

Meanwhile, Bruce remained on the heels of the Knights by slipping by Flintstone on Dick Strother's goal in the first period. The counter came on an assist from Irvin Bennett and the Bulldogs made it stand up for victory to remain unbeaten in three games. Bruce has played a 1-1 tie with Valley.

Ronnie Stafford, Flintstone goalie, played an outstanding game for Coach Stony Jackson's Aggies, making 12 saves during the contest. Also outstanding for the losers were Donnie Smith, Larry Haines and Don Kinton.

Best for Bruce were Robert Wright, Marvin Zais, Dick Stother and Michael Warnick.

In other statistics, Bruce had three corner kicks to Flintstone's one and 12 free boots to four for the Aggies. The defeat was the third in a row for Flintstone. The lineups:

New York Mets Buy Antonelli

Conditional Tag Placed On Hurler

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — The Milwaukee Braves Friday sold pitchers Ken MacKenzie and Johnny Antonelli to the New York Mets and called up some promising farmhands to protect them from the major league draft of of minor leaguers.

There was a conditional tag on the Antonelli sale, meaning he'll have to prove himself in spring drills or the deal is off.

Antonelli, after stardom with the New York and San Francisco Giants, came to the Braves late last season from the Cleveland Indians. It was with the Braves he got his start. But he saw little duty here last season, and was one of the expendables in the recent draft to stock the Mets and Houston Colts, who begin play next year.

MacKenzie, 27, has been in the Braves system since 1957, and was 6-4 at Louisville in the American Association last year.

Chiti Is Among Six Bought By Orioles

BALTIMORE (UPI) — The Baltimore Orioles Friday purchased five rookies and veteran major league catcher Harry Chiti from their minor league affiliates.

Added to the Orioles' roster were pitchers John Miller, Dace McNally, Darold Knowles, Howie Stethers, and Catcher Andy Etchebarren.

The 29-year-old Chiti, who formerly caught for the Chicago Cubs, Kansas City Athletics and Detroit Tigers, was bought from Rochester where he spent part of the season, hitting .321. Chiti also played with Denver of the American Association last season and batted .289.

Bayer Holds Lead In Ontario Open

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Big George Bayer of Miami slipped to a one-over-par 71 Friday but increased his lead to two strokes at the half-way point in the $20,000 Ontario Open Golf Tournament.

Bayer, who set the course record with 64 Thursday, has a 36-hole total of 135.

Young bobby Nichols of Midland, Tex,, was second with 137. The former Texas A&M player also shot a 71 over the wind-lashed Whispering Lakes golf course.

Tied for third at 138 were Billy Maxwell of Dallas and Dave Hill of Denver. Both shot 69s Friday. They and veteran Lloyd Mangrum of Apple Valley were the only three players to break par 36-34—70 Friday.

Waivers Asked On Tom Brewer

Veteran Pitcher Won 91 For Bosox

BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston Red Sox announced Friday that waivers have been asked on pitcher Tom Brewer and veteran catcher Joe Ginsberg prior to granting both men their unconditional releases.

The 30-year-old Brewer, a right-hander from Cheraw, S.C., was plagued with arm trouble through the 1961 season and was on the disabled list most of the year. He appeared in only 10 games, winning 3 and losing 2, and pitched 42 innings.

The 1961 season was the first in which Brewer failed to win at least 10 games for the Red Sox. His best year at Boston was 1956 when he had a 19-9 record. His eight-year record was 91 victories and 82 defeats.

Ginsberg, who was picked up by the Red Sox as a free agent midway through the 1961 season when Boston needed catching insurance, appeared in 24 games, mostly as a pinch-hitter. He batted .222.

St. Patrick's Seeks 4th Straight Win, Play Gaels Sunday

St. Patrick's front-running "Fighting Irish" will play St. Mary's Gaels at Marydale and SS. Peter & Paul will oppose St. Michael's at Frostburg in Catholic Youth Football League games on Sunday at 2 p.m.

St. Patrick's won the season opener from St. Mary's, 19-0, and will be shooting for win No. 4 tomorrow. Other wins were scored over SS. Peter & Paul, 13-12, and St. Michael's, 13-6. The Gaels, 1960 league champions, are 0-3 to date.

SS. Peter & Paul whipped St. Michael's, 6-0, in their series opener and is now 2-1. The Frostburg eleven has won one game and lost two.

Jensen Not Talking, Expected To Retire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Jackie Jensen, the blond "retiring" baseball player, said Friday that the Boston Red Sox will make an announcement about his future "in a short while."

The guess is that Jensen is through with baseball forever. But Jackie will admit to nothing.

"When I have any announcement to make," says the former star football player who developed into one of the baseball greats, "it will come from the Red Sox office in Boston.

Packers Made 2-Point Choice Over Browns

Bears Are Favored To Beat Baltimore

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International

Two of the more astute coaching brains in professional football meet for the first time Sunday when the Cleveland Browns entertain the Green Bay Packers in the National League's top game.

This will mark the first time Vince Lombardi of the Packers, a successful Johnny-come-lately among pro head coaches, matches strategy with Cleveland's "old master," Paul Brown. These teams have not played since 1956.

The Packers were 2-point favorites to beat the Browns before an expected crowd of 70,000 at Cleveland. The game could be a preview of the N.F.L.'s title playoff next December. Both are among the six teams tied at the top of the division standings with 3-1 records.

In another game involving clubs with 3-1 records, the New York Giants were favored by 7 points over the Cowboys at Dallas. And in the battle between the two N.F.L. teams with 0-4 records, the Pittsburgh Steelers were picked by 9 points at home against the Washington Redskins.

Eagles Over Cards

The champion Philadelphia Eagles (3-1) were the choice by 5 points over the Cardinals' "walking wounded" (2-2) at St. Louis; The San Francisco Forty-Niners (3-1) were 13 over the Vikings (3-3) at Minnesota; the Chicago Bears (2-2) were favored by 4 points at home against the Baltimore Colts (2-2), and the Detroit Lions (2-2) were picked by 8 at home over the Los Angeles Rams (1-3).

Hutchinson Heads AP Manager Poll; Dark Given Vote

NEW YORK (AP) — Cincinnati's Fred Hutchinson was a runaway selection as the National League's Manager of the Year for 1961—but he might not know about it yet.

Hutchinson was on a leisurely three or four-day drive from Cincinnati to his home in Brandenton, Fla. when the results of The Associated Press poll were announced Friday. He could not be contacted immediately.

The 42-year-old pilot received all but one of the 176 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The only dissenting ballot named Alvin Dark of the third place San Francisco Giants.

Lee, who tossed for more than 400 yards in shattering the loop mark of 375, raced the clock after Boston grabbed a 31-28 edge on a Butch Songin to Gino Cappelletti pass just 50 seconds from the end.

Lee's 25-yard pitch to Bill Groman at the Boston 17 set up the tying Blanda kick.

Petersburg High School's Vikings scored their third straight Potomac Valley Conference victory yesterday when they downed the Circleville High School Indians at Petersburg by the score of 20-13.

The win gave Coach Wayne Barr's eleven a 3-1-1 record in the conference. Circleville is 1-2 in the 11-school circuit.

A 17-yard punt return by Steve Bruce set up the first PHS score which was credited to Bruce who raced 23 yards around left end. Leroy Ketterman ran the extra point to make it 7-0 in the opening period.

Circleville came back to tie the score in the second period when Ron Williams passed 22 yards to Orville Harper and the same passing combination accounted for the extra point. Circleville had punted to the Vikings one and recovered Shaffer's fumble on the 25.

Petersburg marched 60 yards for its second score later in the second period with Ketterman going over from the four. Leroy also plunged the point to give the Vikings a 14-7 edge.

A 90-yard drive which started late in the third quarter and was climaxed by Bruce's 7-yard run gave Petersburg a two-touchdown lead early in the final stanza. Ketterman's run for the point was stopped.

Ron Williams' pass interception and 46-yard run to the Vikings' 22 set up the Indians' final td midway in the last period. Boggs went over from the one but Williams' failed to make it on his run for the extra point.

Maryland's five extra points were kicked by Ken Carter. Virginia missed their PAT attempts as a kick and two runs failed.

Coach Richard Harmison's Martinsburg High School Bulldogs broke their four-game losing streak and posted their initial win of the 1961 football campaign when they downed Allegany High School's Campers last night at Martinsburg by the score of 25-20.

The victory was the first in four outings for the Bulldogs in the Cumberland Valley Athletic League. Allegany, 1-4-0 overall, went down to defeat for the third straight time in the league. Last season the Campers won the title with a 6-0 record.

By dropping its fourth contest of the campaign Allegany has suffered its most defeats since the 1956 season when it finished with a 3-5-1 record.

Martinsburg took a 7-0 lead in the opening period when John Reuter scored on a 17-yard run and Tom Lewis plunged the extra point.

Two touchdowns in the second period enabled the Bulldogs to pile up a 19-0 lead before Allegany broke into the scoring column. Lewis tallied on a run from the two and Larry Hylton circled left end for six yards and a td.

A 17-yard touchdown dash by Mike Harvey broke the ice for Coach Ed Schwarz's team and Harvey also ran the extra point.

In the third period, the Campers scored on a 62-yard pass play executed by Fred Shank and Jeff Norris with the latter running 39 yards for the td.

Jim Mason tallied for Martinsburg on a 9-yard run and Allegany's final score in the third period was credited to Mike Harvey who ran over from the two. Dave Merrill plunged the point.

Allegany was in possession of the ball late in the final period but fumbled on the Martinsburg 45. The Bulldogs recovered and ran off several plays before time ran out.

U.S. Ryder Cup Team Wins Six Of Eight Tests

To Play 16 Matches With British Today

LYTHAM-St. ANNES, Eng. (UPI) — The United States took a 6-2 lead over Britain Friday in the foursome play of the Ryder Cup international golf competition with the American teams of Arnold Palmer-Billy Casper and Art Wall-Jay Hebert winning two matches each.

Friday's victories left the U.S. needing to win only seven of the 16 singles matches Saturday to win the cup for the 11th time in 14 of the biennial meetings.

Mike Souchak and Bill Collins and Capt. Jerry Barber and Dow Finsterwald won the other U.S. points.

Britain's points were won by Capt. Dai Rees and Ken Bousfield and the team of Christie O'Connor and Peter Alliss.

Palmer and Casper defeated Rees and Bousfield in the morning, 2 and 1, and beat Tom Panton and Bernard Hunt in the afternoon, 5 and 4.

Wall and Hebert turned back Panton and Hunt in the morning and triumphed over the O'Connor-Alliss team in the afternoon, 1 up.

Souchak, Collins Split

Souchak and Collins defeated the British team of Tom Haliburton and Neil Coles, 1 up in the morning but bowed in the afternoon match to Rees and Bousfield, 4 and 2.

Barber and Finsterwald did not play in the morning but in the afternoon defeated Haliburton and Coles 1 up. They took the place of the U. S. team of Gene Littler and Doug Ford, who lost their morning match to O'Connor and Alliss, 4 and 3.

The outcome of the foursome play was a bitter disappointment to the Britons, who had hoped to at least halve the first eight points, counting on their Rees-Bousfield and O'Connor-Alliss teams to win both their matches.

But the Britons generally could not overcome the superior putting of the favored Americans.

Sink Long Puts

Typical was the putting of Finsterwald and Hebert on the final green. Finsterwald sank one of 14 feet for victory and Hebert one of 18 feet, also for a triumph.

In the eight singles matches Saturday morning Ford will play Harry Weetman and Souchak will meet Ralph Moffitt. Neither of Britons played Friday. In the other matches it will be Palmer vs. Alliss, Casper vs. Bousfield, Hebert vs. Rees, Litter vs. Coles, Barber vs. Hunt and Finsterwald vs. O'Connor.

The pairings for the eight afternoon matches will not be made until the morning round is completed.

Cardinals Purchase Seven Minor Leaguers

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals purchased the contracts of seven minor league players Friday, thereby replacing the seven lost to the two new National League baseball teams.

Bought by the parent club were pitcher Bob Duliba, first basemen Fred Whitfield and Joff Long and third baseman Floyd Wicker from Charleston, W. Va.; pitcher Paul Toth and catcher Ray Bond from Tulsa, and infielder Ron Kabbes from Rochester, N.Y.

Tenth Ranked Terps To Face Tarheel Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pride is Coach Tom Nugent's sales pitch to his Maryland football players for Saturday's game against North Carolina.

Nugent admits he went as far as possible in firing up his team for its first three games, which they won over Southern Methodist, Clemson and Syracuse.

"Now it's up to them," to realize they are good and to uphold their ranking among the best 10 teams in the nation, Nugent said.

While dopesters were inclined to fear Maryland might be nonchalant in approaching North Carolina, the Terps haven't been on top of the heap long enough to become complacent.

The season has a long way to go and the Maryland squad has a lot of young players who are full of fire and brimstone.

North Carolina more than likely will try to show early it is out for blood. The Tarheels are smarting from a 27-0 setback at the hands of Clemson last week and as far as individual talent goes they take a back seat to no squad in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Navy will be in the same boat with Maryland in trying to forget the past. The Middies, also riding high after upsetting Miami, are at Cornell.

The Ivy League team was knocked for a loop last week by Harvard and on paper offer no problem to Navy.

Spivey Is Traded To Los Angeles Jets

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Pipers of the new American Basketball League Friday traded away center Bill Spivey to the Los Angeles Jets.

The 7-foot Spivey was dealt to the Jets of the ABL, along with Hank Whitney, in trade for 6-foot-9 center Nick Romanoff. It was a straight player deal between the two professional clubs.

Johnson Is Victor Over David Floyd

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Don Johnson, 126¾, of Los Angeles, stopped David Floyd, 127¾, of Australia, in the eighth round of a 12-round bout Friday night.

Johnson wore down the young Aussie with his relentless attack. It was a good comeback for the American. He was knocked out in the second round by Australian Les McLean last month.

A first quarter touchdown by halfback Terry Mezzatesta was the margin of victory as unbeaten Romney High School edged a stubborn Ridgeley High School eleven by the score of 6-0 yesterday in a Potomac Valley Conference battle at Romney.

Ridgeley's showing came as a big surprise as the Blackhawks had dropped four of their five previous starts and had yielded a total of 94 points in those games.

The victory extended Romney's 1961 winning streak to seven games and gave Coach Roger Parker's Pioneers a 4-0 record in the P.V.C. The setback was the fifth straight for the Blackhawks in the conference.

A fumble set the stage for the game's only score. Romney had taken the opening kickoff and marched to the Ridgeley 25 only to lose the ball on downs. Ridgeley fumbled on the first play, Romney recovered and six plays later Mezzatesta raced into the end zone for the score.

Romney advanced to the Ridgeley one late in the second period but the drive ended when time ran out. Ridgeley drove from its own 30 to the Pioneers' 27 just as the game ended.

Romney can windup an unbeaten season in the P.V.C. if it defeats Petersburg in its final conference contest next Friday at Romney.

Mickey Wright Retains Lead At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Mickey Wright survived a shaky 77 Friday to hold a two-stroke lead after the windswept second round of the Ladies Professional Golfers Association (LPGA) tournament.

Entering the second round with a five-stroke advantage on the basis of her 67 Friday, Mickey skied five over regulation figures but still managed to stay ahead when other women couldn't cope with winds of 25 to 30 miles per hour. Her 36-hole score in the $15,000 tourney is 1444.

Best round of the day was Shirley Englehorn's 74, only three over par. She has a 146, while Jo Ann Prentice, Birmingham, Ala., took a 76 today to score 149 at the halfway mark, and Louise Suggs, 74, on opening day, hit a 76 for a 150 total.

Wolverines And Spartans To Clash Before 101,000

Alabama To Battle N.C. State; Trojans Meet Notre Dame

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

There'll be rock 'em, sock 'em football at its best Saturday in Ann Arbor, Mich., when Michigan State and Michigan get together for the biggest boom to hit that state since Henry Ford started the horseless carriage craze.

Over 101,000 fans, with a national television audience looking over their shoulders, will jam Michigan's huge three-dimensional bowl for the day's top college football game.

It will be televised by ABC, beginning at 1:30 p.m. EST.

State is a slight favorite on the basis of its strong defense, ranked ninth over-all and led by a rushing defense that is second to none nationally. It will be severely tested by Michigan's hard running trio of Bill Tunnicliff, Dave Raimey and Benny McRae.

Ole Miss Favored

The top-ranked team, Mississippi, is expected to make it past Houston for its 19th game without a loss, stretching back into 1959.

Two other ranked teams meet in Big Ten battles. Iowa, second with a 2-0 mark, opens conference play against winless Indiana (0-2). Seventh-ranked Ohio State (1-1-0) starts against Illinois (0-2).

Alabama (3-0), ranked third, goes out of the Southeastern Conference against a so-so North Carolina State (1-2) team, led by aerial whizz Roman Gabriel, the nation's ninth best passer.

Texas (No. 4), the nation's top offensive outfit, plays winless Oklahoma, which it has beaten the last three years under Coach Darrell Royal, a former star for the Sooners coach, Bud Wilkinson.

Notre Dame (No. 8) continues its resurgence against Southern California, which just missed, 35-34 against Iowa last week. The Irish are 2-0. Baylor, ranked ninth, took last week off to prepare for Saturday's Southwest Conference battle with Arkansas (2-1).

Terps Face Tar Heels

Tenth-ranked Maryland, 3-0, plays North Carolina in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

Other top games pit Navy (2-1) against the Ivy League's Cornell (1-1); once-beaten Army at Penn State, (2-1); Duke, 3-0, the ACC leader against Georgia Tech, 2-1, of the SEC; the East's best, Syracuse 2-1, at Nebraska (2-0-1); Oregon State, (2-1) at Wisconsin (2-1); and Vanderbilt (2-1) on the West Coast against UCLA (1-2).

Yale goes for its 11th straight victory, meeting Columbia, in the Ivy League's premier game. Iowa State, 2-0 in the Big Eight, hopes to take the lead by beating winless Kansas. Utah and Brigham Young, both 1-0 in the Skyline, meet for the undisputed lead while the Big Five gets under way with California playing Washington.

Northwestern, 1-0 in the Big Ten, plays Minnesota, the defending champion. Furman, one of the tri-leaders in the Southern Conference plays non-member Howard, but the other two leaders, George Washington and The Citadel play members Richmond and William & Mary, respectively.

U.S. Netmen Lead Italy

Jon Douglas Wins Five-Set Contest

ROME (UPI) — A fighting mad United States Davis Cup team made a strong bid to upset Italy in the interzone finals Friday when husky Jon Douglas scored an incredible come-from-behind victory and erratic Whitney Reed took a solid lead over Italy's best player.

Douglas, a former Stanford University football quarterback recently discharged from the U.S. Marines, lost the first two sets and trailed, 5-2, in the third when he rallied on the brink of defeat and battled grimly all the way to a 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 10-8, 6-0 victory over Fausto Gardini.

That was surprise enough for the partisan crowd of 6,000 at the Rome Tennis Club, but then Reed a completely unorthodox swinger from Alameda, Calif., grabbed a 6-2, 8-6, 3-4 lead over Italian ace Nicola Pietrangeli before darkness forced postponement of the rest of the match until Saturday.

If Reed can hold his lead over Pietrangeli the Yanks will have a 2-0 lead and will need to win only one of the three remaining matches to earn the right to meet defending champion Australia in the challenge round in December. And they could very well get the third victory when Reed meets Gardini in singles on Sunday.

College Homecoming Games Set For Frostburg, Keyser

Bridgewater Battles Bobcats; D.&E. Will Face Potomac State

Homecoming games at Frostburg and Keyser will highlight Saturday's football schedule in the tri-state area.

In the Mountain City, Frostburg State Teachers College, which made its debut in football this season, will play host to Bridgewater (Va.) College at 2 p.m. This will be the Bobcats' first home engagement.

At Stayman Field, Keyser, Potomac State's Catamounts, making their fourth appearance of the campaign at home, will play the Senators of Davis and Elkins College in a West Virginia Conference game at 2 p.m.

Both Teams Winless

Both Bridgewater and Frostburg State will be trying to crash the win column for the first time. The Virginians, coached by George Keim, former Little All-America team player, have lost to Western Maryland, 38-0, Hampden-Sydney 51-7 and Gallaudet, 30-0.

Coach Ron Van Ryswyk's Bobcats have bowed to Shepherd, 29-6, Davis and Elkins 28-0 and the D.C. Teachers, 8-7.

In spite of injuries suffered in last Saturday's game at Washington, Coach Van Ryswyk reports his squad is in "good shape" and will be shooting the works to win this one. Quarterback Freddie Wartzack, who suffered an injured leg at the start of the season, is expected to return to action and William Graves, defensive tackle, who was hurt in the D.C. tilt, may get into Saturday's game.

A homecoming queen will be crowned at halftime ceremonies.

Soccer Game At 10:30

The homecoming program at Frostburg also includes a soccer game at 10:30 a.m., between Coach Ken Babcock's Bobcats (2-1-2) and Howard University of Washington, D. C., whose squad is composed entirely of foreign-born players.

Beaten in its last three outings and shut out twice, Potomac State will be striving to get back into the win column when it does battle with D. & E. The only win on Potomac's record is a 28-0 decision over Bainbridge Naval Academy. Defeats have been suffered at the hands of Glenville, 39-20, Salem 25-0 and Shepherd 32-0.

Coach Blankenship's Senators come to Keyser with an 0-3 record, having lost to Fairmont State, 19-9, Frostburg State and Glenville's Pioneers 13-0.

D. & E. is 0-2 in the five-team Eastern Division of the WVIAC, Potomac State is 0-3 in the seven-team Western Division.

Huskies To Play Here

Northern High School's Huskies of Garrett County will play the Fort Hill High School "B" eleven today at 1:30 at Fort Hill Stadium.

Other Saturday schoolboy games include Valley of Hot Springs, Va., at Franklin, W. Va., West Virginia School for the Deaf of Romney at the American School for the Deaf, at Hartford, Conn., Chambersburg at South Hagerstown and Harpers Ferry at Hancock.

Champagne Stakes Set For Aqueduct

NEW YORK (UPI) — A field of 10 was named Friday for Saturday's 90th running of the Champagne Stakes at Aqueduct with C. D. Widener's entry of Jaipur and Endymion favored in the $206,800 race.

Jaipur is the stronger of the pair for he has won the Flash, the Hopeful and the Cowdin Stakes this season. With Eddie Arcaro slated to ride Jaipur and Howard Grant on Endymion, the entry was favorite at 6 to 5.

Sir Gaylord, Obey, Crimson Satan, Donut King, Brown Bulldog, Mister Pitt, Cavalanche, and Clever Hands complete the field for the one mile event. All carry 122 pounds.

A first quarter touchdown by halfback Terry Mezzatesta was the margin of victory as unbeaten Romney High School edged a stubborn Ridgeley High School eleven by the score of 6-0 yesterday in a Potomac Valley Conference battle at Romney.

Ridgeley's showing came as a big surprise as the Blackhawks had dropped four of their five previous starts and had yielded a total of 94 points in those games.

The victory extended Romney's 1961 winning streak to seven games and gave Coach Roger Parker's Pioneers a 4-0 record in the P.V.C. The setback was the fifth straight for the Blackhawks in the conference.

A fumble set the stage for the game's only score. Romney had taken the opening kickoff and marched to the Ridgeley 25 only to lose the ball on downs. Ridgeley fumbled on the first play, Romney recovered and six plays later Mezzatesta raced into the end zone for the score.

Romney advanced to the Ridgeley one late in the second period but the drive ended when time ran out. Ridgeley drove from its own 30 to the Pioneers' 27 just as the game ended.

Romney can windup an unbeaten season in the P.V.C. if it defeats Petersburg in its final conference contest next Friday at Romney.

Mickey Wright Retains Lead At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Mickey Wright survived a shaky 77 Friday to hold a two-stroke lead after the windswept second round of the Ladies Professional Golfers Association (LPGA) tournament.

Entering the second round with a five-stroke advantage on the basis of her 67 Friday, Mickey skied five over regulation figures but still managed to stay ahead when other women couldn't cope with winds of 25 to 30 miles per hour. Her 36-hole score in the $15,000 tourney is 1444.

Best round of the day was Shirley Englehorn's 74, only three over par. She has a 146, while Jo Ann Prentice, Birmingham, Ala., took a 76 today to score 149 at the halfway mark, and Louise Suggs, 74, on opening day, hit a 76 for a 150 total.

Wolverines And Spartans To Clash Before 101,000

Alabama To Battle N.C. State; Trojans Meet Notre Dame

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

There'll be rock 'em sock 'em football at its best Saturday in Ann Arbor, Mich., when Michigan State and Michigan get together for the biggest boom to hit that state since Henry Ford started the horseless carriage craze.

Over 101,000 fans, with a national television audience looking over their shoulders, will jam Michigan's huge three-dimensional bowl for the day's top college football game.

It will be televised by ABC, beginning at 1:30 p.m. EST.

State is a slight favorite on the basis of its strong defense, ranked ninth over-all and led by a rushing defense that is second to none nationally. It will be severely tested by Michigan's hard running trio of Bill Tunnicliff, Dave Raimey and Benny McRae.

Ole Miss Favored

The top-ranked team, Mississippi, is expected to make it past Houston for its 19th game without a loss, stretching back into 1959.

Two other ranked teams meet in Big Ten battles. Iowa, second with a 2-0 mark, opens conference play against winless Indiana (0-2). Seventh-ranked Ohio State (1-1-0) starts against Illinois (0-2).

Alabama (3-0), ranked third, goes out of the Southeastern Conference against a so-so North Carolina State (1-2) team, led by aerial whizz Roman Gabriel, the nation's ninth best passer.

Texas (No. 4), the nation's top offensive outfit, plays winless Oklahoma, which it has beaten the last three years under Coach Darrell Royal, a former star for the Sooners coach, Bud Wilkinson.

Notre Dame (No. 8) continues its resurgence against Southern California, which just missed, 35-34 against Iowa last week. The Irish are 2-0. Baylor, ranked ninth, took last week off to prepare for Saturday's Southwest Conference battle with Arkansas (2-1).

Terps Face Tar Heels

Tenth-ranked Maryland, 3-0, plays North Carolina in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

Other top games pit Navy (2-1) against the Ivy League's Cornell (1-1); once-beaten Army at Penn State, (2-1); Duke, 3-0, the ACC leader against Georgia Tech, 2-1, of the SEC; the East's best, Syracuse 2-1, at Nebraska (2-0-1); Oregon State, (2-1) at Wisconsin (2-1); and Vanderbilt (2-1) on the West Coast against UCLA (1-2).

Yale goes for its 11th straight victory, meeting Columbia, in the Ivy League's premier game. Iowa State, 2-0 in the Big Eight, hopes to take the lead by beating winless Kansas. Utah and Brigham Young, both 1-0 in the Skyline, meet for the undisputed lead while the Big Five gets under way with California playing Washington.

Northwestern, 1-0 in the Big Ten, plays Minnesota, the defending champion. Furman, one of the tri-leaders in the Southern Conference plays non-member Howard, but the other two leaders, George Washington and The Citadel play members Richmond and William & Mary, respectively.

U.S. Netmen Lead Italy

Jon Douglas Wins Five-Set Contest

ROME (UPI) — A fighting mad United States Davis Cup team made a strong bid to upset Italy in the interzone finals Friday when husky Jon Douglas scored an incredible come-from-behind victory and erratic Whitney Reed took a solid lead over Italy's best player.

Douglas, a former Stanford University football quarterback recently discharged from the U.S. Marines, lost the first two sets and trailed, 5-2, in the third when he rallied on the brink of defeat and battled grimly all the way to a 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 10-8, 6-0 victory over Fausto Gardini.

That was surprise enough for the partisan crowd of 6,000 at the Rome Tennis Club, but then Reed a completely unorthodox swinger from Alameda, Calif., grabbed a 6-2, 8-6, 3-4 lead over Italian ace Nicola Pietrangeli before darkness forced postponement of the rest of the match until Saturday.

If Reed can hold his lead over Pietrangeli the Yanks will have a 2-0 lead and will need to win only one of the three remaining matches to earn the right to meet defending champion Australia in the challenge round in December. And they could very well get the third victory when Reed meets Gardini in singles on Sunday.

College Homecoming Games Set For Frostburg, Keyser

Bridgewater Battles Bobcats; D.&E. Will Face Potomac State

Homecoming games at Frostburg and Keyser will highlight Saturday's football schedule in the tri-state area.

In the Mountain City, Frostburg State Teachers College, which made its debut in football this season, will play host to Bridgewater (Va.) College at 2 p.m. This will be the Bobcats' first home engagement.

At Stayman Field, Keyser, Potomac State's Catamounts, making their fourth appearance of the campaign at home, will play the Senators of Davis and Elkins College in a West Virginia Conference game at 2 p.m.

Both Teams Winless

Both Bridgewater and Frostburg State will be trying to crash the win column for the first time. The Virginians, coached by George Keim, former Little All-America team player, have lost to Western Maryland, 38-0, Hampden-Sydney 51-7 and Gallaudet, 30-0.

Coach Ron Van Ryswyk's Bobcats have bowed to Shepherd, 29-6, Davis and Elkins 28-0 and the D.C. Teachers, 8-7.

In spite of injuries suffered in last Saturday's game at Washington, Coach Van Ryswyk reports his squad is in "good shape" and will be shooting the works to win this one. Quarterback Freddie Wartzack, who suffered an injured leg at the start of the season, is expected to return to action and William Graves, defensive tackle, who was hurt in the D.C. tilt, may get into Saturday's game.

A homecoming queen will be crowned at halftime ceremonies.

Soccer Game At 10:30

The homecoming program at Frostburg also includes a soccer game at 10:30 a.m., between Coach Ken Babcock's Bobcats (2-1-2) and Howard University of Washington, D. C., whose squad is composed entirely of foreign-born players.

Beaten in its last three outings and shut out twice, Potomac State will be striving to get back into the win column when it does battle with D. & E. The only win on Potomac's record is a 28-0 decision over Bainbridge Naval Academy. Defeats have been suffered at the hands of Glenville, 39-20, Salem 25-0 and Shepherd 32-0.

Coach Blankenship's Senators come to Keyser with an 0-3 record, having lost to Fairmont State, 19-9, Frostburg State and Glenville's Pioneers 13-0.

D. & E. is 0-2 in the five-team Eastern Division of the WVIAC. Potomac State is 0-3 in the seven-team Western Division.

Huskies To Play Here

Northern High School's Huskies of Garrett County will play the Fort Hill High School "B" eleven today at 1:30 at Fort Hill Stadium.

Other Saturday schoolboy games include Valley of Hot Springs, Va., at Franklin, W. Va., West Virginia School for the Deaf of Romney at the American School for the Deaf, at Hartford, Conn., Chambersburg at South Hagerstown and Harpers Ferry at Hancock.

Champagne Stakes Set For Aqueduct

NEW YORK (UPI) — A field of 10 was named Friday for Saturday's 90th running of the Champagne Stakes at Aqueduct with C. D. Widener's entry of Jaipur and Endymion favored in the $206,800 race.

Jaipur is the stronger of the pair for he has won the Flash, the Hopeful and the Cowdin Stakes this season. With Eddie Arcaro slated to ride Jaipur and Howard Grant on Endymion, the entry was favorite at 6 to 5.

Sir Gaylord, Obey, Crimson Satan, Donut King, Brown Bulldog, Mister Pitt, Cavalanche, and Clever Hands complete the field for the one mile event. All carry 122 pounds.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Rye and soybean futures rose sharply late Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade, while other grains finished narrowly mixed.

Wheat closed off ⅜ to up ½, corn off ⅛ to ⅜, oats off ½ to up ¼, rye up ½ to 1 aand soybeans up ⅛ to 1⅜.

Prices ruled mostly lower through a large part of the session as demand was poor. Buying picked up markedly in the final hour.

Local traders bought wheat at the outset. They soon moved to the selling side and were joined by commission houses. Exporters bought on reports of a pending salee of hard wheat to Turkey.

Oats fell back with corn and under liquidating sales.

Reports that Germany was in the market for additional quantities of rye firmed that grain.

Demand for soybeans reflected overnight rain in the corn belt, which could delay harvesting. Meal and oil futures were mixed. Hedge sales remained light, and some demaand came from commercial houses.

Outside markets were mostly lower.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Rye and soybean futures rose sharply late Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade, while other grains finished narrowly mixed.

Wheat closed off ⅜ to up ½, corn off ⅛ to ⅜, oats off ½ to up ¼, rye up ½ to 1 aand soybeans up ⅛ to 1⅜.

Prices ruled mostly lower through a large part of the session as demand was poor. Buying picked up markedly in the final hour.

Local traders bought wheat at the outset. They soon moved to the selling side and were joined by commission houses. Exporters bought on reports of a pending salee of hard wheat to Turkey.

Corn declined following early commission buying. Locals sold on the belief government sales of surplus corn will soon pick up. Demand was poor.

Oats fell back with corn and under liquidating sales.

Reports that Germany was in the market for additional quantities of rye firmed that grain.

Demand for soybeans reflected overnight rain in the corn belt, which could delay harvesting. Meal and oil futures were mixed. Hedge sales remained light, and some demaand came from commercial houses.

Confirmed export sales were restricted to small amounts of soybeans to the continent.

Outside markets were mostly lower.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and uncle, Trone H. Whitney, who passed away 7 years ago, October 14, 1954.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more,
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.

LOVING WIFE & NIECE,
SUE ELLEN

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and uncle, Trone H. Whitney, who passed away 7 years ago, October 14, 1954.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more,
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.

LOVING WIFE & NIECE,
SUE ELLEN

24,000-Plus Take Vaccine In Two Days

16 Centers Ready For Biggest Day Of Sabin Program

At least 24,000 persons have taken the Sabin oral polio vaccine here in the past two days, the Allegany-Garrett County Medical Society reported as it prepared for the third and probably biggest day of the program.

More than 9,000 persons visited centers yesterday, checks of partial totals showed last night. Added to the nearly 16,000 school children who got the vaccine at their schools on Thursday, they brought the total to at least 24,000.

Cumberland centers, checked just before the 10 p. m. closing time, had served sips of the vaccine to 5,320 persons. Centers elsewhere in the county, many of which reported hours before closing, had at least another 3,400 and their totals were climbing even as they counted.

Beall Elementary School in Frostburg seemed sure to finish with one of the biggest totals, having served 1,010 persons by 7.30 p. m, Also busy were centers at Penn Avenue School in Cumberland, with 1,328 and at the Algonquin Hotel, where about 1,000 took their doses.

Many "First-Timers"

Doctors were encouraged by the number of first-time takers at all centers. On the average, they were accounting for about a quarter of the total takers.

The immunity test for polio, offered only at Penn Avenue School, was proving popular, as about 100 persons volunteered for the blood test. It is available to anyone under 30 who has taken only one Salk shot or none at all.

Pharmacists, nurses, student nurses and lay workers were out in force to help the physicians in charge at every center.

No long lines were reported and things moved smoothly at all centers, though some were outstanding in the efficiency with which they operated.

Physicians chalked this up to the experience all the vaccine workers gained during last June's first-dose program.

"Everyone's a 'veteran' by now, and everything is easier," said one doctor.

As the oral vaccine program moves into its third day today, the medical society asked once again that everyone go to the center where he took his first dose in June unless he wants the immunity test, in which case he should go to Penn Avenue.

AMA Official Coming

Dr. William C. Spring Jr., secretary of the Council on Drugs of the American Medical Society, plans to be on hand to observe the final phase this morning.

Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of the vaccine which is being donated here by Wyeth Laboratories, had to decline an invitation to observe the program, as he's just completed a Far Eastern trip. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham Ribicoff, also invited, was unable to make it.

In the schools Thursday, 15,861 children took the vaccine at 40 of the 41 schools for which figures were available last night. With a minimum of 9,000 visiting the 14 dispensing centers that were open yesterday, the two-day total is expected to be near 25,000 or possibly higher.

Doctors are confident that the third day's doses will push the total number of participants

Visit Hotel For Polio Vaccine

Where To Get Second Dose Of Sabin Vaccine

The second dose of Sabin oral polio vaccine will be given at dispensing centers today from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Everyone should go to the same center he went to in June unless this would cause a real hardship. In that case he can get the vaccine at any of the centers.

If you're under 30 and have had no Salk shots or only one, you can get a free blood test for immunity to polio by taking the vaccine at Penn Avenue School, no matter where you took the first dose.

Four Injured In Auto Plunge

Four persons were taken to the emergency room of Garrett County Memorial Hospital in Oakland last night with injuries sustained when the car in which they were traveling ran off the end of a bridge and plunged into Stony River near Mt. Storm on U. S. Route 50, police said.

The names of the injured persons and their conditions were not available late last night, according to police who said the car was a total loss.

Boy Scouts Launch Drive To Organize New Troops

Potomac Council, Boy Scouts will make a special effort in 1962 to organize two new units from January through May, according to Ivan Hall, council organization and extension chairman.

Mr. Hall said the council's aim is to organize 10 new units before next June 1. Theme of the operation is called "Two in '62."

Mr. Hall said the purpose of the plan is to make the scouting program available to more boys immediately, and to make use of some additional manpower in the organization of more units.

The program also will level off the loss in membership the council usually experiences during the early part of the year. The plan also will help prevent the usual year-end rush in organizing units, Mr. Hall stated.

Each district will appoint a chairman for his district to help select the institutions to be organized.

A meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the council office to launch the program. Paul L. Ruble, Cumberland, has been named chairman of the "Two in '62" program and he will meet with district chairmen, district O&E chairmen and "Two in '62" chairmen.

Scouters throughout the council are urged to give their district chairman the name of any potential sponsoring institutions.

Home Show Ends Its Run Here Today

Today is your last chance to see the Cumberland Home Show which opened Thursday at the Western Maryland freight warehouse on Canal Street under sponsorship of the Junior Association of Commerce.

Described by patrons and exhibitors as the "best show yet," it has attracted about 3,800 persons thus far. Last night some 2,253 persons saw the show and on Thursday about 1,600 visitors viewed the exhibits and also saw the 1962 model automobiles and mobile homes on display.

The show will be held today from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m., according to Frederick J. Hill, Jaycee president, who said Patricia Moon, of Bethesda, "Miss Maryland of 1961" will put in her appearance at the show.

She will arrive in Cumberland at 2 p. m. and will ride down Baltimore Street in a convertible to the show. At 9 p. m. today she will draw the names of lucky winners of a set of tires given by the Kelly-Springfield tire Company, a stereophonic record player given by the Jaycees and a trip for two to historic Williamsburg, Va., given by the Conlon Insurance Agency.

Last night Mrs. Lucy Aldridge of 305 Valley Street and M. E. MacDonald of 104 East First Street won prizes including $15 worth of drapery material from Celanese Fibers Company and a storm door from Bauer Wholesale and Supply.

Miss Lashley is a graduate of Mt. Savage High School and recently was graduated from Eastern Bible Institute, Green Lane, Pa. She is presently traveling with a group conducting evangelistic crusades in the eastern states.

Co-chairmen for the luncheon are Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt and Magistrate Thomas G. Barton of Cresaptown.

Three Injured At Knapp's Meadow

At least three persons were injured late last night in a two-car accident on Maryland Route 36 at Knapp's Meadow near Lonaconing.

Maryland State Police said two persons were taken to Miners Hospital in Frostburg for treatment although neither apparently was hurt too seriously.

One car was traveling south in the direction of Lonaconing and the other north toward Midland at the time of the accident. The names of the injured were not available late last night, police said.

Chamber Asks Support For Safety Plan

Legislators Hear Pinto Bridge Appeal

The Cumberland Chamber of Commerce last night asked legislators of both parties to support legislation in the General Assembly for compulsory and periodic examination of motor vehicles and drivers.

The plea was made by C. M. Sanner, president, before members of the Legislative Council of the General Assembly who are making their annual visit to Western Maryland.

Safety drives in Maryland, Mr. Sanner said, have avoided the most obvious step — the examination of drivers and vehicles.

House Majority Leader A. Gordon Boone, Baltimore County, said bills for inspection of motor vehicles have been approved three times in the House only to fail in Senate.

Seek New Bridge

Legislators had no comment on the driver examination phase of the proposal.

The Chamber also discussed plans for securing a new bridge across the Potomac River at Pinto to serve the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory.

Efforts to secure federal funds for the facility needed by the rocket center have so far been unsuccessful.

State Senator Charles M. See, Allegany County, said he was sure West Virginia would build the approach on its side of the span if Maryland would take care of the rest.

Del. Boone suggested that residents of Allegany and Mineral County get together with roads officials of both states to see if something could be worked out.

Approves Plan

Such a plan was backed by Senator Mary L. Knock, Wicomico County, president pro tem of the Council, who said a similar plan was worked out on the Eastern Shore by Maryland and Delaware.

House Minority Leader Lester B. Reed, Allegany County, also suggested approaching West Virginia on the plan again, since ABL employment is at least three times as great as it was the last time West Virginia was asked to cooperate.

Legislative Council members will be taken over the span this morning on their way to tour the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

The legislators will go to Garrett County this afternoon.

JACK ROBBINS

Converted Jew To Speak Here

A converted Jewish rabbi, Jack Robbins, of Houston, Texas, will be guest speaker at Central Assembly of God Church, corner Johnson and Fayette streets, October 17 through October 22, at 7:45 each evening except Saturday.

Mr. Robbins is a son of Rabbi Abraham Rabinowitz, an outstanding rabbi and theologian. Members of his family have been rabbis from father to son for 17 generations. Mr. Robbins worked with his father in his rabbinnical duties in Houston until 1948 when he was converted to Christianity while reading a Gideon Bible in a hotel room.

Disowned by his people, forsaken by his wife and family, he became a forgotten man to the Jews, but was soon a teacher in the world's largest Methodist church, the First Methodist Church of Houston.

Since July 1960, Mr. Robbins has been traveling under the auspices of the Full Gospel Business Men International, maintaining an itinerary 90 days ahead.

Rev. Frank J. Fratto, pastor of the Central Assembly, said the public is invited to attend these services.

Celanese Workers Are Being Urged To File Appeals

All members of Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America, who are being denied unemployment benefits should file appeals with the local office of the Department of Employment Security, according to James R. Stewart, president.

He said the notices of appeals should be filed immediately.

Appeals to decisions handed down this week by a DES special examiner in the cases of Charles H. Brode and Lillian C. Burch are being requested with the full support of the Celanese union, he said.

The DES examiner ruled that furloughs in the Brode and Burch claims resulted from a stoppage of work due to a labor dispute in the Extrusion department of the Amcelle plant.

Escapee Gets Stiffer Term In Penitentiary

Judge Sentences Paw Paw Youth

Calvin Largent, 19, of Paw Paw, one of two prisoners who fled Sunday from the Hampshire County jail in Romney, W. Va., and was recaptured, has been sentenced to from two to 10 years in the State Penitentiary at Moundsville, authorities said.

He was sentenced earlier this week by Judge H. Gus Muntzing who previously had sentenced the man to from one to five years on a forgery conviction. Following the jail break and eventual recapture, the sentence was doubled, the authorities added.

Meanwhile the search continues for Brother Ginevan, 27, of the Pin Oak sector of Hampshire County, who had been sentenced to from five to 20 years in the State Penitentiary on a rape charge. Both men were awaiting transfer to the state institution when they fled from the county jail.

Sheriff J. M. Buckbee, who along with state police and constables of the county, has been conducting an intensive search and following up every report, said that Maryland authorities have joined in the search for Ginevan.

When Maryland State Police were alerted Thursday morning Trooper Leonard F. Glenn of the LaVale barracks joined in the search and combed some of the back roads in that area.

The search, the sheriff said, has not been pressed toward Pasadena, located near Baltimore, where the escapee reportedly has a girl friend.

Early Thursday morning before daylight, a man believed to have been Ginevan was seen near an auto belonging to a resident of the Paw Paw area who opened up fire with a shotgun.

The man was later seen by Police Chief Roby of Paw Paw who said the unidentified person ran across a bridge at Paw Paw into Maryland and may have gone down the old C&O canal in the direction of Washington.

Saturday, October 28, at 1 p.m. the Y will hold a Halloween party for members with all children attending in costume and mask. Costumes will be judged under the direction of Al Cedel, chairman of the newly-formed program steering committee.

The day will conclude with a full-length feature ghost movie. Reservations may be made by calling the Y.

Gordon Boone, majority leader of the House of Delegates; Senator Mary L. Nock, Wicomico County, president pro tem of the Senate, and Harry I. Stegmaier, chairman of the Chamber's Legislative committee. The Chamber urged legislation for compulsory inspection of vehicles, drivers.

Never Too Young

Timothy Brown is only eight months old but he had his second dose of the free Sabin oral polio vaccine yesterday at the public center at John Humbird School. He is pictured lying contentedly on his mother's lap. She is Mrs. James A. Brown of Laing Avenue. Standing beside her mother is three-year-old Janie Brown.

24,000-Plus Take Vaccine In Two Days

16 Centers Ready For Biggest Day Of Sabin Program

At least 24,000 persons have taken the Sabin oral polio vaccine here in the past two days, the Allegany-Garrett County Medical Society reported as it prepared for the third and probably biggest day of the program.

More than 9,000 persons visited centers yesterday, checks of partial totals showed last night. Added to the nearly 16,000 school children who got the vaccine at their schools on Thursday, they brought the total to at least 24,000.

Cumberland centers, checked just before the 10 p. m. closing time, had served sips of the vaccine to 5,320 persons. Centers elsewhere in the county, many of which reported hours before closing, had at least another 3,400 and their totals were climbing even as they counted.

Beall Elementary School in Frostburg seemed sure to finish with one of the biggest totals, having served 1,010 persons by 7.30 p. m. Also busy were centers at Penn Avenue School in Cumberland, with 1,328 and at the Algonquin Hotel, where about 1,000 took their doses.

Many "First-Timers"

Doctors were encouraged by the number of first-time takers at all centers. On the average, they were accounting for about a quarter of the total takers.

The immunity test for polio, offered only at Penn Avenue School, was proving popular, as about 100 persons volunteered for the blood test. It is available to anyone under 30 who has taken only one Salk shot or none at all.

Pharmacists, nurses, student nurses and lay workers were out in force to help the physicians in charge at every center.

No long lines were reported and things moved smoothly at all centers, though some were outstanding in the efficiency with which they operated.

Physicians chalked this up to the experience all the vaccine workers gained during last June's first-dose program.

"Everyone's a 'veteran' by now, and everything is easier," said one doctor.

As the oral vaccine program moves into its third day today, the medical society asked once again that everyone go to the center where he took his first dose in June unless he wants the immunity test, in which case he should go to Penn Avenue.

AMA Official Coming

Dr. William C. Spring Jr., secretary of the Council on Drugs of the American Medical Society, plans to be on hand to observe the final phase this morning.

Dr. Albert B. Sabin, developer of the vaccine which is being donated here by Wyeth Laboratories, had to decline an invitation to observe the program, as he's just completed a Far Eastern trip. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham Ribicoff, also invited, was unable to make it.

In the schools Thursday, 15,861 children took the vaccine at 40 of the 41 schools for which figures were available last night. With a minimum of 9,000 visiting the 14 dispensing centers that were open yesterday, the two-day total is expected to be near 25,000 or possibly higher.

Doctors are confident that the third day's doses will push the total number of participants

Visit Hotel For Polio Vaccine

Where To Get Second Dose Of Sabin Vaccine

The second dose of Sabin oral polio vaccine will be given at dispensing centers today from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Everyone should go to the same center he went to in June unless this would cause a real hardship. In that case he can get the vaccine at any of the centers.

If you're under 30 and have had no Salk shots or only one, you can get a free blood test for immunity to polio by taking the vaccine at Penn Avenue School, no matter where you took the first dose.

Four persons were taken to the emergency room of Garrett County Memorial Hospital in Oakland last night with injuries sustained when the car in which they were traveling ran off the end of a bridge and plunged into Stony River near Mt. Storm on U. S. Route 50, police said.

Boy Scouts Launch Drive To Organize New Troops

Potomac Council, Boy Scouts will make a special effort in 1962 to organize two new units from January through May, according to Ivan Hall, council organization and extension chairman.

Mr. Hall said the council's aim is to organize 10 new units before next June 1. Theme of the operation is called "Two in '62."

Mr. Hall said the purpose of the plan is to make the scouting program available to more boys immediately, and to make use of some additional manpower in the organization of more units.

The program also will level off the loss in membership the council usually experiences during the early part of the year. The plan also will help prevent the usual year-end rush in organizing units, Mr. Hall stated.

Each district will appoint a chairman for his district to help select the institutions to be organized.

A meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the council office to launch the program. Paul L. Ruble, Cumberland, has been named chairman of the "Two in '62" program and he will meet with district chairmen, district O&E chairmen and "Two in '62" chairmen.

Scouters throughout the council are urged to give their district chairman the name of any potential sponsoring institutions.

The show will be held today from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m., according to Frederick J. Hill, Jaycee president, who said Patricia Moon, of Bethesda, "Miss Maryland of 1961" will put in her appearance at the show.

She will arrive in Cumberland at 2 p. m. and will ride down Baltimore Street in a convertible to the show. At 9 p. m. today she will draw the names of lucky winners of a set of tires given by the Kelly-Springfield tire Company, a stereophonic record player given by the Jaycees and a trip for two to historic Williamsburg, Va., given by the Conlon Insurance Agency.

Last night Mrs. Lucy Aldridge of 305 Valley Street and M. E. MacDonald of 104 East First Street won prizes including $15 worth of drapery material from Celanese Fibers Company and a storm door from Bauer Wholesale and Supply.

Chamber Asks Support For Safety Plan

Legislators Hear Pinto Bridge Appeal

The Cumberland Chamber of Commerce last night asked legislators of both parties to support legislation in the General Assembly for compulsory and periodic examination of motor vehicles and drivers.

The plea was made by C. M. Sanner, president, before members of the Legislative Council of the General Assembly who are making their annual visit to Western Maryland.

Safety drives in Maryland, Mr. Sanner said, have avoided the most obvious step — the examination of drivers and vehicles.

House Majority Leader A. Gordon Boone, Baltimore County, said bills for inspection of motor vehicles have been approved three times in the House only to fail in Senate.

Seek New Bridge

Legislators had no comment on the driver examination phase of the proposal.

The Chamber also discussed plans for securing a new bridge across the Potomac River at Pinto to serve the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory.

Efforts to secure federal funds for the facility needed by the rocket center have so far been unsuccessful.

State Senator Charles M. See, Allegany County, said he was sure West Virginia would build the approach on its side of the span if Maryland would take care of the rest.

Del. Boone suggested that residents of Allegany and Mineral County get together with roads officials of both states to see if something could be worked out.

Approves Plan

Such a plan was backed by Senator Mary L. Knock, Wicomico County, president pro tem of the Council, who said a similar plan was worked out on the Eastern Shore by Maryland and Delaware.

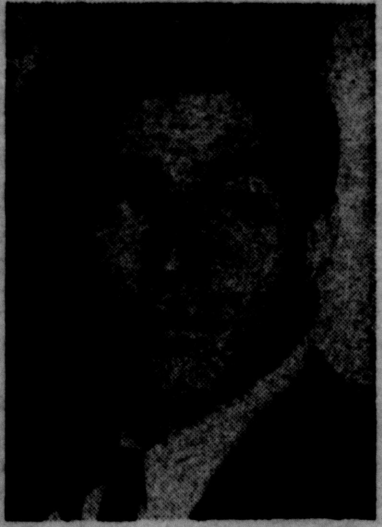
Water Role In World TV Subject

A global report on the role of water in the birth and decay of the world's civilization—and the problems man faces today in his quickening search for water across the world will be presented on the CBS Television Network Thursday, October 19 (10:00-11:00 p. m. EDT). The title of the program is CBS Reports: "The Water Famine."

Howard K. Smith and Alexander Kendrick will be the reporters.

Through sequences filmed among the ruins of Babylon at the confluence of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers, at Ctesiphon near Baghdad, Iraq, and in the Negev Desert in Israel, the program will consider the influence of water on the growth and death of ancient cilvilizations in the Middle East. Other sequences will show the struggle of ancient civilizations to maintain an adequate water supply through construction of aqueducts, cisterns and walled fields.

In exploring U. S. water problems (there has been a sharp growth in water needs as population has increased and industry has expanded), the CBS Reports cameras will follow the 240-mile Colorado River Aqueduct that runs from Parker Dam on the Colorado River across the desert and through the mountains to Los Angeles; will show cattle grazing on the dry bottoms of San Diego's reservoirs, and will investigate the massive irrigation system planned by California.



MAN TO WATCH — James Franciscus, who moved from early episodes of "Naked City" to this year's "The Investigators" on TV, is on the way "up." It's no accident. Franciscus has a plan for creating the "right image" of himself in filmland.

Saturn Firing To Be On TV

The first flight test of America's huge new Saturn missile, expected about the middle of this month, will be covered live on the NBC Television and Radio Networks.

NBC News correspondent Roy Neal will be anchorman for the TV coverage, and James Kitchell will direct. Neal and Kitchell, who have worked on the coverage of a number of missile launchings over the past few years, headed the widely acclaimed TV coverage of the space flight of astronaut Alan B. Shepard last spring.

The Saturn test will be the first experimental launching of this rocket, the largest space vehicle under development in the United States. The Saturn is designed to send payloads of several tons into earth orbit, to the moon and into outer space. A main purpose of the Saturn is manned space exploration leading to lunar landings of men and equipment.

The first launching of the rocket will test its booster, or first stage. The upper stages of the vehicle will be "inert" and will not be fired in the initial launching.

The NBC News coverage will use three cameras at Cape Canaveral, Fla. The news team will also use a tape recorder.

TWOSOME — Dick Van Dyke and Mary Tyler Moore play husband and wife in "Dick Van Dyke Show."

Quality Van Dyke Show Aim

When a comedian is funny, he attributes his success to his own abilities, but when he bombs, he blames his writers.

The precarious world of the comedy writer is explored each week on "The Dick Van Dyke Show," a new half hour comedy series.

Handsome Dick Van Dyke stars as Rob Petrie, head writer for Alan Brady, a fictional television personality.

Stories for "The Dick Van Dyke Show" are not devoted exclusively to the working activities of the writers. Some episodes deal with the home life of Rob Petrie, his lovely wife, Laura, portrayed by beautiful Mary Tyler Moore, and their five-year-old son Ritchie, played by Larry Mathews.

Every effort has been made to produce a program of high quality including the introduction of a unique production schedule, which calls for complete run-throughs of each script on two successive nights. Audiences are present at each session and three cameras, rather than one, film the action.

The first, or "preview" night, is employed as a guide to audience reaction. Based on the response of the "preview" audience, story changes are made which permit improvement.

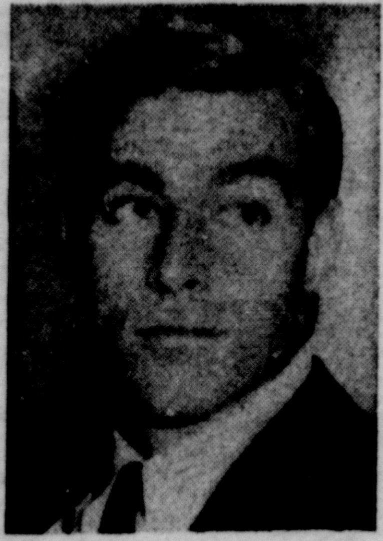
Water Role In World TV Subject

A global report on the role of water in the birth and decay of the world's civilization—and the problems man faces today in his quickening search for water across the world will be presented on the CBS Television Network Thursday, October 19 (10:00-11:00 p. m. EDT). The title of the program is CBS Reports: "The Water Famine."

Howard K. Smith and Alexander Kendrick will be the reporters.

Through sequences filmed among the ruins of Babylon at the confluence of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers, at Ctesiphon near Baghdad, Iraq, and in the Negev Desert in Israel, the program will consider the influence of water on the growth and death of ancient cilvilizations in the Middle East. Other sequences will show the struggle of ancient civilizations to maintain an adequate water supply through construction of aqueducts, cisterns and walled fields.

In exploring U. S. water problems (there has been a sharp growth in water needs as population has increased and industry has expanded), the CBS Reports cameras will follow the 240-mile Colorado River Aqueduct that runs from Parker Dam on the Colorado River across the desert and through the mountains to Los Angeles; will show cattle grazing on the dry bottoms of San Diego's reservoirs, and will investigate the massive irrigation system planned by California.



MAN TO WATCH — James Franciscus, who moved from early episodes of "Naked City" to this year's "The Investigators" on TV, is on the way "up." It's no accident. Franciscus has a plan for creating the "right image" of himself in filmland.

Saturn Firing To Be On TV

The first flight test of America's huge new Saturn missile, expected about the middle of this month, will be covered live on the NBC Television and Radio Networks.

NBC News correspondent Roy Neal will be anchorman for the TV coverage, and James Kitchell will direct. Neal and Kitchell, who have worked on the coverage of a number of missile launchings over the past few years, headed the widely acclaimed TV coverage of the space flight of astronaut Alan B. Shepard last spring.

The Saturn test will be the first experimental launching of this rocket, the largest space vehicle under development in the United States. The Saturn is designed to send payloads of several tons into earth orbit, to the moon and into outer space. A main purpose of the Saturn is manned space exploration leading to lunar landings of men and equipment.

The first launching of the rocket will test its booster, or first stage. The upper stages of the vehicle will be "inert" and will not be fired in the initial launching.

The NBC News coverage will use three cameras at Cape Canaveral, Fla. The news team will also use a tape recorder.

Don Drysdale, Wife On Film Contracts

Acting runs in the Drysdale family. Don Drysdale, pitcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers, took a fling at a lead on a "Lawman" program last season and did well enough to be asked back when he can make it.

Now his pretty 20-year-old wife, Ginger, is also entering the TV field and she'll be in "Lawman" as well as other shows put out by Warner Brothers, who signed her to a contract.

Don Drysdale, Wife On Film Contracts

Acting runs in the Drysdale family. Don Drysdale, pitcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers, took a fling at a lead on a "Lawman" program last season and did well enough to be asked back when he can make it.

Now his pretty 20-year-old wife, Ginger, is also entering the TV field and she'll be in "Lawman" as well as other shows put out by Warner Brothers, who signed her to a contract.
